

THE GERMAN ADVANCE FROM ANTWERP CROSSING ONE OF THE CANALS IN WESTERN BELGIUM.
(Photos (C) by International News Service.)

"NO PRICE CAN BE TOO HIGH WHEN HONOUR AND FREEDOM ARE AT STAKE." J.H. Asquith

Two Soldiers and an Organist of St. Paul's Cathedral Visiting Nelson's Tomb in the Crypt of the Cathedral, Which Was Thrown Open to the Public Free on Trafalgar Day.

NELSON COLUMN IN LONDON INSCRIBED WITH PATRIOTIC MOTTOES FOR THE TRAFALGAR DAY CELEBRATION.

GERMAN SOLDIERS HOOKING A DUCK FROM THE RIVER NETHE, NEAR ANTWERP.

CANADIAN SOLDIERS LISTENING TO A SERMON ON THEIR FIRST SUNDAY IN ENGLAND.
(Photos from Paul Thompson.)