How you can aid the RED CROSS without cost to yourself

By Special Permission

EVERY yellow label appearing on the front of a package of Cox's Gelatine will be redeemed if presented before February 1, 1915, for 1 cent in cash, to be paid to the Red Cross.

This very unusual offer is generously made by The Cox Gelatine Company in order that they may make a substantial contribution to the heroic work of the Red Cross, and give every American woman an opportunity to share in the gift.

Save the Yellow Labels!
Save the yellow labels from all packages of Cox's Gelatine used in your own home, and collect labels among your friends.

To Members of the Red Cross
Here is your chance to perform a little service with a big result. Gather all you can at once and send them along.

To Members of the National Housewives' League
Your Headquarters has undertaken the handling of this campaign. Let every member hereby consider herself appointed an official collector.

Act Quickly!
People are pouring out money, labor, personal sacrifices, and even their lives, in the cause of the Red Cross. Every woman who reads this announcement ought to help.

The Cox Gelatine package is shown on this page. Cut out the side which bears the label in yellow. All labels will be carefully counted by the Housewives' League and turned over to The Cox Gelatine Company each week in exchange for their check payable to the Red Cross. This offer expires February 1st, 1915. Labels may be tied in bundles, or enclosed in envelopes and addressed plainly. Large quantities may be sent by parcel post. If you will mark on the wrapper the name and address of the sender, proper acknowledgment will be made in the official magazine of the Housewives' League.
