

HOSPITAL BARGES ON THE SEINE AT PARIS Used by Red Cross Nurses in Bringing the Wounded from the Battlefields Bordering the Seine and in Housing the Overflow from the City Hospitals
(Photo by Sport & General.)

RED CROSS NURSE, AT A HOSPITAL IN NOTHERN
FRANCE, HANGING CHRISTMAS EVERGREENS
ABOVE A WOUNDED SOLDIER'S COT
(Photo (C) by American Press Assn.)

PRINCESS "DAISY" OF PLESS, a Titled English Woman Wedded to a German Nobleman, who Has Left Her Beautiful Home at Fuerstenstein, Near Breslau, to Nurse the Wounded at the Front. She is Shown Among Her Convalescent German Charges
(Photo (C) by Brown & Dawson from Underwood & Underwood.)

COUNTESS LONYAY, Widow of Crown Prince Rudolph of Austria, and a Belgian Princess, in Her Uniform as a Red Cross Nurse with the Austrian Army

LADY SYBIL GREY, Daughter of Earl Grey, Former Governor-General of Canada, Who Has Enlisted As a Red Cross Nurse, and is Actively in Charge of the Wounded at Howick Hall, Northumberland, England
(Photo (C) by International News Service.)