President Wilson and officials on the reviewing stand in front of the New York Public Library
Saluting the flag from the U.S.S. Florida, which flew at Vera Cruz.

In the group, left to right, are Assistant Secretary Franklin D. Roosevelt, Secretary Tumulty, Acting Mayor George McAdoo, President Wilson, Secretary Daniels, and Admiral Fletcher.

The President's yacht, The Mayflower, on the left, followed by the Dolphin, bearing the Secretary of the Navy, saluted by the Dreadnoughts on the Hudson.

Sailors and marines of the Atlantic Fleet passing up Fifth Avenue after the review by the President.

(Photos by American News Service.)