

GREEK PRIESTS BEARING THE SACRED IKON, BELIEVED BY DEVOUT GREEKS TO HAVE BEEN PAINTED BY ST. LUKE, TO THE PALACE OF KING CONSTANTINE AT A CRITICAL POINT IN HIS ILLNESS. The Ikon, which was brought from the Island of Tinos for the purpose, is thought by many of the King's subjects to have effected the improvement in the King's condition announced soon after its arrival. (Photos © by Underwood & Underwood.)

MR. AND MRS. OLIVER CARLEY HARRIMAN EXHIBITING THEIR DOGS AT THE THIRD, ANNUAL SHOW OF THE WESTCHESTER KENNEL CLUB.

An Elaborate Mantel in the Library at Harvard Just Dedicated in Memory of Harry Elkins Widener, Who Perished in the Titanic Disaster, by His Mother, Mrs. Eleanor Elkins Widener. A Portrait of Mr. Widener Hangs Above the Fireplace. (Photo © Boston Photo News Co.)

Speaker Champ Clark and His Daughter, Miss Genevieve Clark, Who Will Be Married This Week to James M. Thompson of New Orleans. From a photograph taken a week ago at the Clark Home, Bowling Green, Mo. (Photo © by International News Service.)

Dr. E. Hioki, Japanese Minister to China, with His Family in Garden of the Japanese Legation, Peking, China. To Dr. Hioki was intrusted the recent delicate negotiations between his country and China.