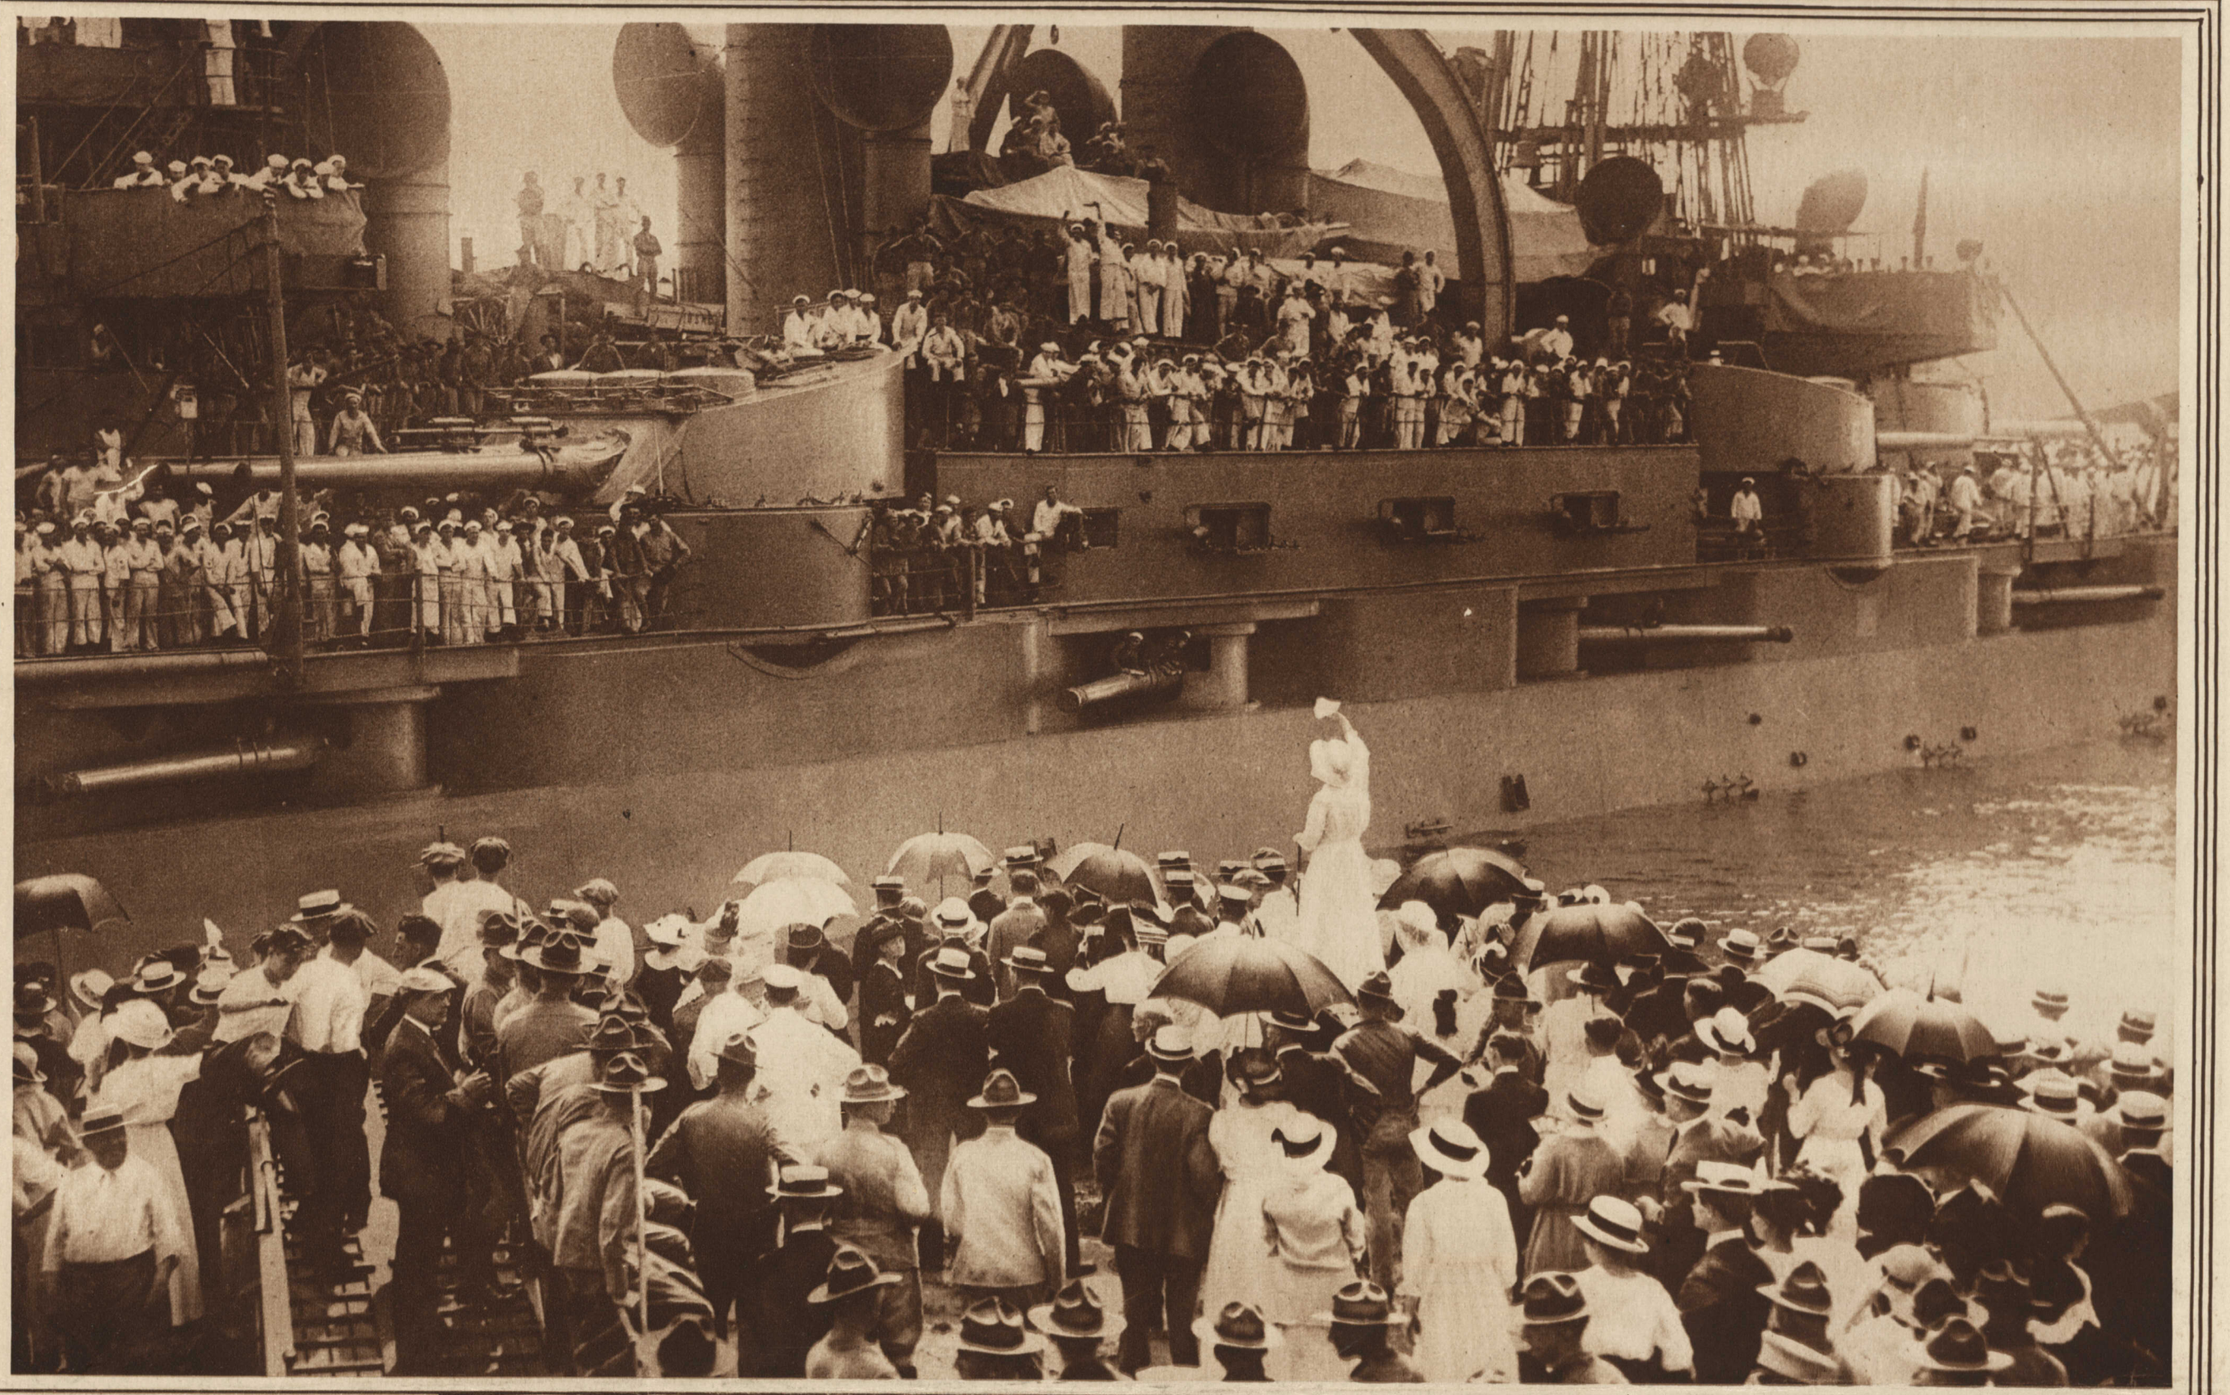
Picture Section,
Rotogravure: Part 1

The New York Times

Sunday,
August 8, 1915



THE UNITED STATES BATTLESHIP CONNECTICUT, WITH 500 MARINES ON BOARD, SAILING FROM PHILADELPHIA FOR HAITI, TO PUT DOWN THE REVOLUTION.
(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

The German Emperor and Field Marshal von Mackensen, with Their Staffs, in Conference Before the Great Headquarters Near Warsaw.
(Photo from Paul Thompson.)

Procession Conveying the Ashes of Claude Joseph de Lisle, Composer of the "Marseillaise," Passing Through L'Arc de Triomphe, Paris, on Its Way to the Invalides. Immediately Underneath the Arch Are President Poincare, on His Right, M. Dubost, President of the Senate, and on His Left, M. Deschanel, President of the Deputies.
(Photo from Medem Photo Service.)

THE FAMOUS GERMAN LIQUID FIRE USED AGAINST THE ALLIES IN THE TRENCH FIGHTING IN THE ARGONNE.
From the First Photograph of This New Means of Warfare to Reach This Country.
(Photo by Albert K. Dawson © by International Press Exchange.)