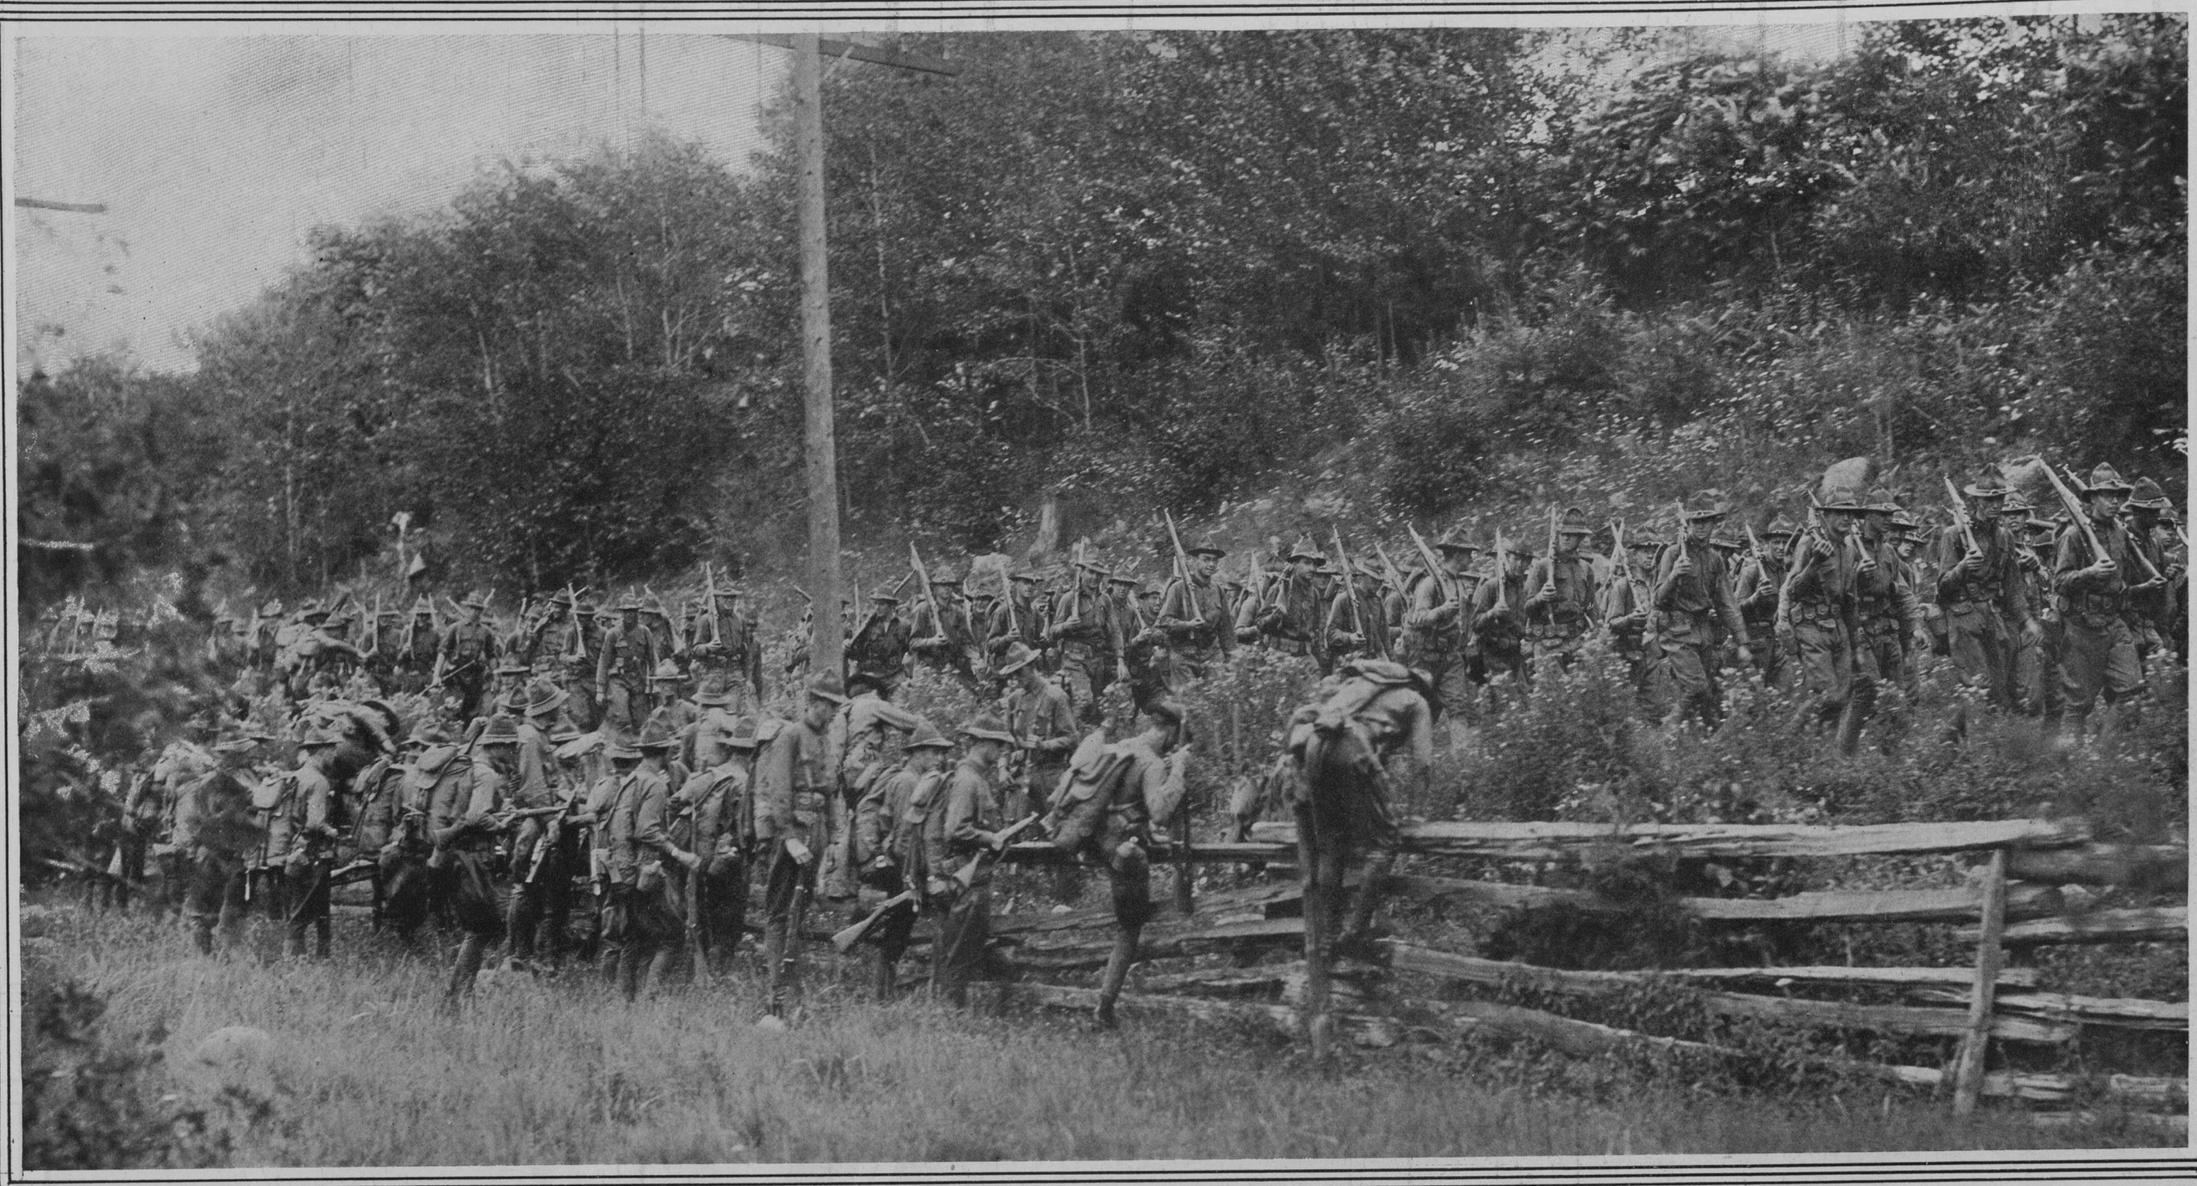
The New York Times

SCENES FROM THE FIRST WAR GAMES

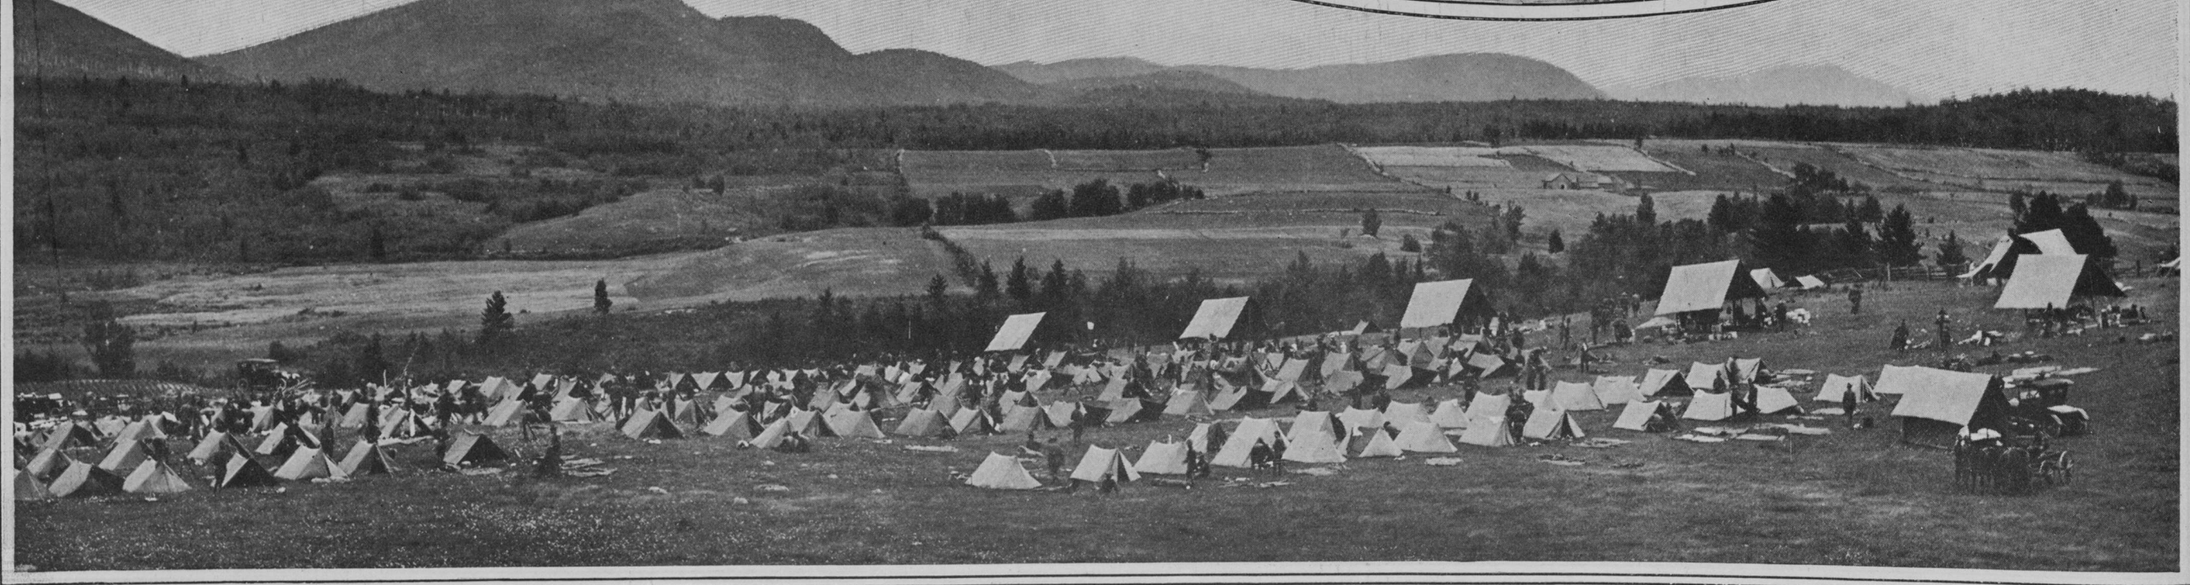


College Students, After Three Weeks' Instruction at Plattsburg, N. Y., Take Part in Their First War Games, Near Silver Lake in the Adirondacks. They Are Here Shown Advancing Under the Cover of Woods.

(All Photos Taken Expressly for The New York Times.)

RESERVES AWAITING THE COMMAND TO ADVANCE INTO ACTION.

General Leonard Wood, U. S. A., Under Whose Eye the War Games Were Played, Talking It Over With the Umpires.



STUDENTS PITCHING CAMP NEAR CLAYBURG, CLINTON COUNTY, N. Y,. AFTER A HARD DAY OF FIGHTING AND MARCHING.