

RUSSIAN SOLDIERS IN POLAND, IN FRANTIC EFFORTS TO SAVE THEIR BIG GUNS FROM CAPTURE, HAULING THEM TO PLACES OF SAFETY OVER SPECIALLY CONSTRUCTED RAILWAY LINES.

(Photos from American Press Association.)

ARCHDUKE KARL STEPHAN OF AUSTRIA, ASPIRANT TO THE THRONE OF POLAND, IF THAT COUNTRY RECEIVES ITS INDEPENDENCE AS A RESULT OF THE WAR. The Archduke, of the House of Hapsburg, is a Brother of Archduke Frederick, the Austrian Commander in Chief, and of Archduke Eugene, Austria's Chief Field Commander Against the Italians.

WOUNDED BRITISH SOLDIER, RETURNING TO ENGLAND FROM A FIELD HOSPITAL, LOWERED BY A CRANE FROM THE TRANSPORT TO THE HOSPITAL LAUNCH.

(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

(Photos © Universal Press Syndicate.)

Big Austrian Shell Photographed at the Instant of Explosion on the Edge of a Field Newly Prepared for Cultivation.

GROUP OF AUSTRALIAN VOLUNTEERS FOR THE FIGHTING IN EUROPE MARCHING WITH THEIR HANDBAGGAGE TO THE TRAINING CAMP.

(Photo from Doubleday, Page & Co.)