

AUSTRALIAN REINFORCEMENTS FOR THE BRITISH TROOPS IN EUROPE ON THEIR FAREWELL PARADE BEFORE EMBARKING ON OCTOBER 1ST LAST.
(Photos from Underwood & Underwood.)

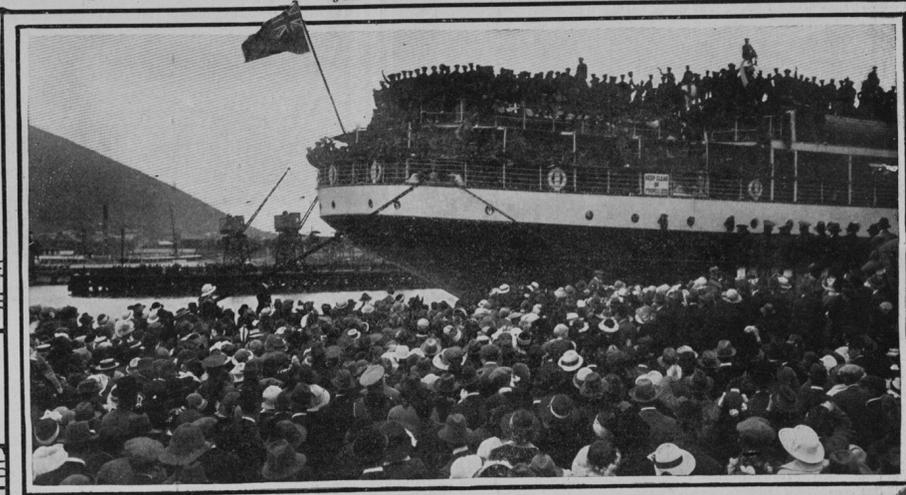

Lady Helen Munro Ferguson, Wife of the Governor General of Australia, Sir Ronald Munro Ferguson, Speaking at the Opening of a Hospital Near Sydney for Homecoming Wounded Soldiers.

The S. S. Balmoral Castle Leaving South Africa on September 26th Bearing Thousands of Reinforcements to the British Army in Europe.
(Photo from Janet M. Cummings.)

(Photo from Medem.)

Mlle. Emilienne Moreau, the Young French Girl Referred to by Sir Douglas Haig as the "Joan of Arc of Loos,"
Just After She Had Received the "Cross of War" from General de Lailly.

TURKISH ARTILLERY MASSED JUST OUTSIDE OF JERUSALEM READY TO ADVANCE IN ANY DIRECTION ORDERED BY CONSTANTINOPLE.
(Photo © Underwood & Underwood.)