

FRENCH ALPINE TROOPS IN THE VOSGES AWAIT ON A HILLSIDE THE ORDER TO ADVANCE AND TAKE THEIR PLACES IN THE TRENCHES.

FRENCH SOLDIERS USING ONE OF THE NEW JAUBERT OXYGEN BREATHING TUBES FOUND EFFECTIVE AGAINST ASPHYXIATING GASES.

(Photo from Herbert Wade.)

GENERAL SIR WILLIAM ROBERTSON, BRITISH CHIEF OF STAFF, MAKING HIS "FIGHT-TO-A-FINISH" SPEECH AT THE UNVEILING OF A CROSS IN DALDERBY, LINCOLNSHIRE, DONATED TO THE VILLAGE FOR HAVING ENLISTED THE LARGEST PERCENTAGE OF ITS MANHOOD IN THE WAR.

(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

KING GEORGE V., BEHIND THE LINES IN FRANCE, WATCHING THE BOMBARDMENT OF THE GERMAN LINES THROUGH A TELESCOPE. (Photo © American Press Assn. From Medem Photo Service.)

GLASGOW GIRLS WHO HAVE BECOME COAL CART DRIVERS TO TAKE THE PLACES OF THE MEN AT THE FRONT. (Photo by Central News Photo Service.)