

FORMER FRENCH CUIRASSIERS, OR CAVALRYMEN, NOW DISMOUNTED AND REORGANIZED AS INFANTRYMEN, RESTING BY THE ROADSIDE.

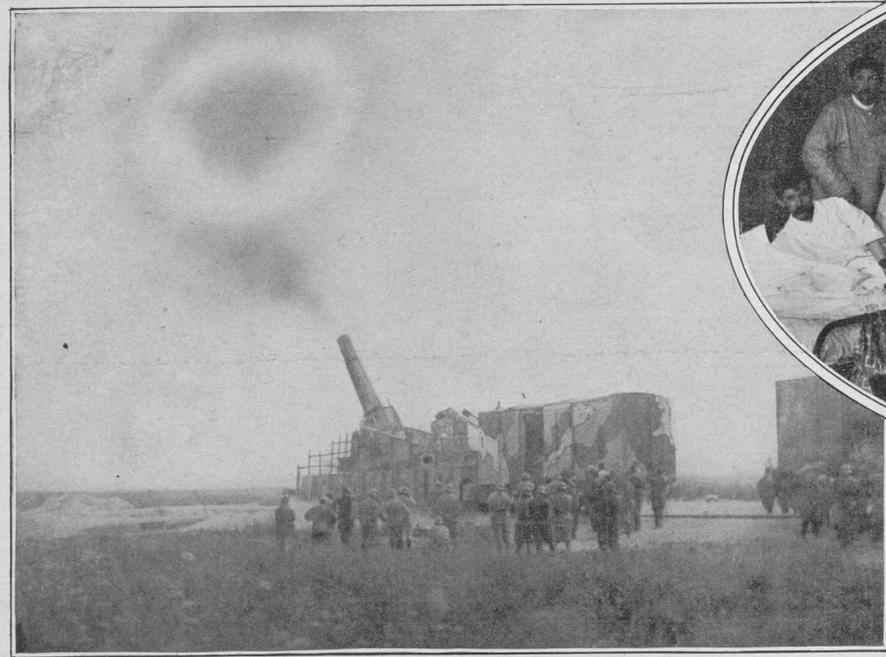

(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

(Photo © American Press Assn.)

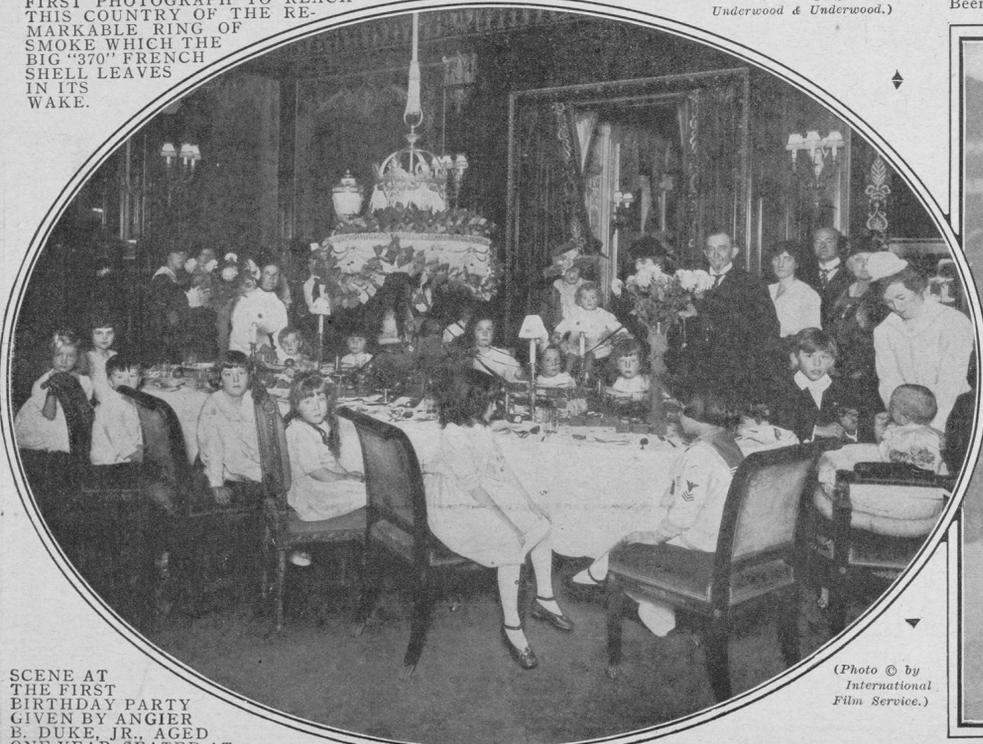

SCENE IN THE SPECIAL WARD OF PRINCESS AYMON DE FAUCIGNY-LUCINGE, FORMERLY MRS. JOSEPH STICKNEY OF NEW YORK, IN THE HOME OF DUCHESS DE ROHAN, FORMERLY THE PARIS RESIDENCE OF MARSHAL MacMAHON, WHICH HAS BEEN CONVERTED INTO A WAR HOSPITAL. The Princess Is Standing With Her Hands on the Shoulders of One of Her Charges, With the Duchess on Her Left. The Tapestries and Walls of the Historic House Have Been Covered to Protect Them.

FIRST PHOTOGRAPH TO REACH THIS COUNTRY OF THE REMARKABLE RING OF SMOKE WHICH THE BIG "370" FRENCH SHELL LEAVES IN ITS WAKE.

(Photo © by Underwood & Underwood.)

SCENE AT THE FIRST BIRTHDAY PARTY GIVEN BY ANGIER B. DUKE, JR., AGED ONE YEAR, SEATED AT THE HEAD OF THE TABLE. Grouped About the Table, Starting from the Little Host's Left, Are: Amos Wylie, Letta Clews, Mary Gladys Willetts, David Burton, Doris Duke, Cynthia Pratt, Dallas Pratt, Gladys Bradley, Virginia Thaw, Lucella Wylie, Belle Wylie, Julia Willetts, William Watriss, Benjamin N. Duke, the Child's Grandfather, Heads the Family Group of Elders in the Background.

(Photo © by International Film Service.)

M. YSAYE, THE VIOLINIST, On the Front in Belgium With His Soldier Son.

(Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

COUNTESS DOLIA CASELLA TAMBURINI, Formerly Miss Dolia Harris of Virginia, and Now the Wife of Count Arnaldo Casella Tamburini, Court Painter to Italy, in the Egyptian Costume Worn at the Ten Allies Ball.

(Photo by Count Jean de Strelecki.)