

GERMAN PRISONERS TAKEN IN THE SURPRISE ATTACK AND RECAPTURE OF FORT DOUAMONT, VERDUN, WAITING BEHIND THE FRENCH LINES FOR TRANSPORTATION TO CONCENTRATION CAMPS: A FRENCH OFFICIAL PHOTOGRAPH.

(Photo from Central News Photo Service.)

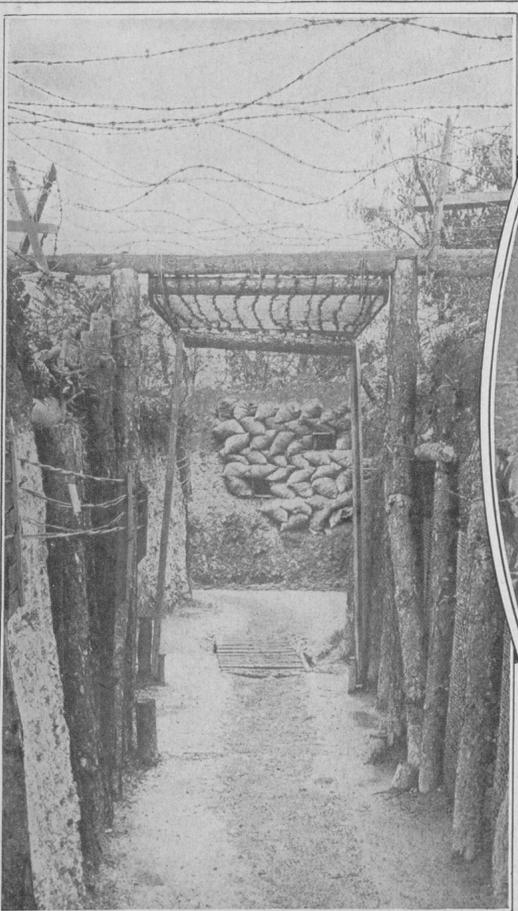

FRENCH "POILUS" PAINTING THEIR METAL HELMETS A DULL COLOR TO AVOID BECOMING "SHINING MARKS" IN THE SUNLIGHT FOR GERMAN SHARPSHOOTERS AND AVIATORS.

(Photo by Central News Service.)

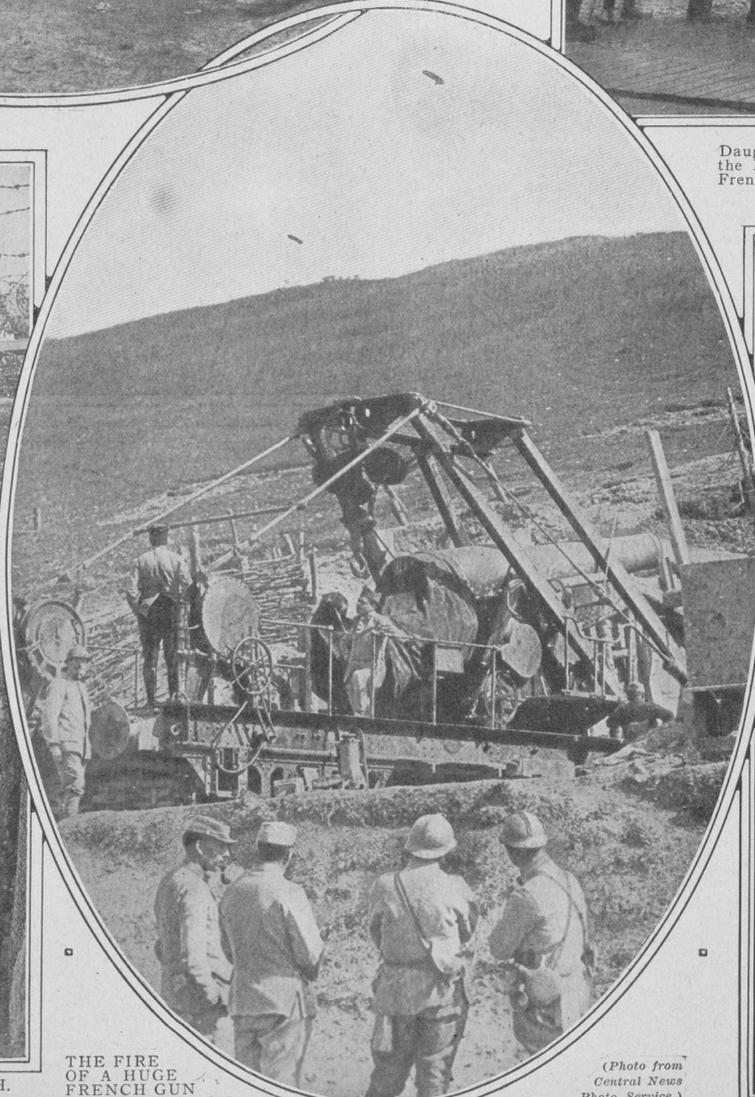

MRS. DOUGLAS BORDEN TURNER, Daughter of Mrs. William Borden of New York, Who Has Been Commended in the Paris Press for Having Given the First Movable Surgical Hospital to the French Army, Directing the Removal of Wounded Soldiers to Her Institution Located Within Five Miles of the First Line Trenches.

(Photo © Central News Photo Service.)

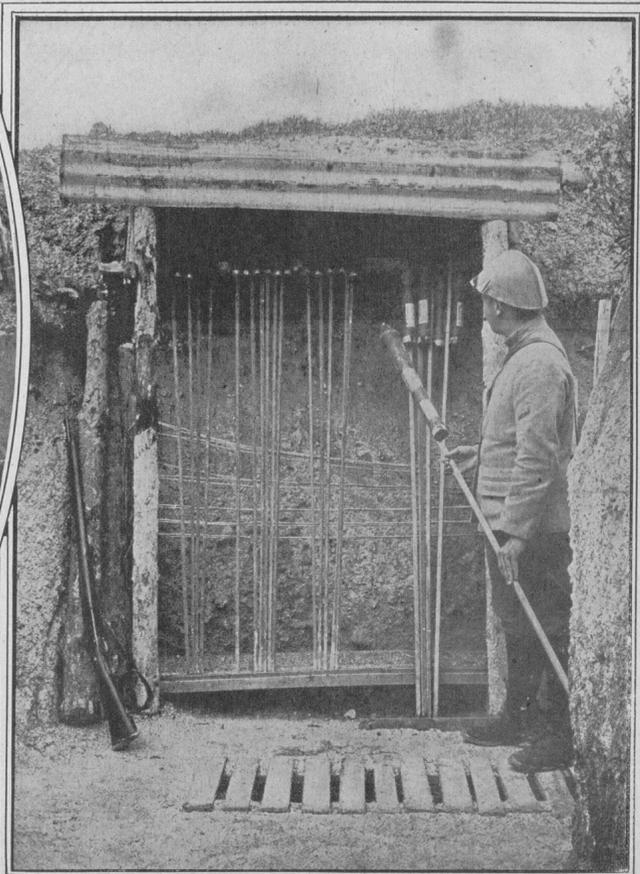

A FRENCH NOVELTY: THE "RAT TRAP" TRENCH. It is Equipped with a Closely Latticed Barbed Wire Door Which Can be Dropped to Check Pursuit in the Event of Invasion.

(Photo by Central News Photo Service.)

THE FIRE OF A HUGE FRENCH GUN BEHIND A HIGH RIDGE ON THE SOMME DIRECTED FROM CAPTIVE BALLOONS, VISIBLE IN THE DISTANCE, WITH WHICH THE GUNNERS ARE IN COMMUNICATION BY TELEPHONE.

(Photo from Central News Photo Service.)

A TRENCH ROCKET POST ON THE FRENCH FRONT WHERE ARE KEPT ILLUMINATING ROCKETS FOR USE IN LIGHTING NIGHT ATTACKS.

(Photo by Central News Photo Service.)