

BELA LYON PRATT, BOSTON SCULPTOR, AT WORK IN HIS STUDIO ON A COLOSSAL STATUE FOR THE CITY OF CHICAGO.

(Photo by Central News Photo Service.)

MISS ARLIA CARRANZA, Niece of General Venustiano Carranza, First Chief of the Mexican Provisional Government, Who Is Spending the Christmas Holidays in New York.

(Photo by Campbell Studios.)

MME. VICTOR HORTA, Wife of the Director of the Belgian Royal School of Fine Arts, Who Has Just Organized in New York the American Aid for Homeless Belgian Children.

MME. SLAVKO GROUITCH, Wife of the Serbian Premier, Who Recently Posed for Anna Coleman Ladd, Sculptor, for a Bust Embodying in Bronze the "Spirit of Serbia."

MRS. LADD PUTTING THE FINAL TOUCHES ON THE ALLEGORICAL STATUE OF THE "SPIRIT OF SERBIA," FOR WHICH MME. GROUITCH POSED.

(Photos by Central News Photo Service.)

Mlle. YVONNE DE BRAY, The French Actress, Who Is to Appear This Winter in a New Play by Henri Bataille, Whose Last Production, "L'Amazonne," a War Play Which Hits at Slackers, Created Much Discussion. From a Recent Photograph Taken in Mlle. de Bray's Paris Home.

(Photo from Central News Photo Service.)

LILLIAN GISH IN A SCENE FROM THE NEW TRIANGLE SCREEN PLAY, "THE HOUSE BUILT UPON SAND."