

UNITED STATES AMBASSADOR JAMES W. GERARD AND PARTY ARRIVING IN PARIS FROM BERLIN BY WAY OF BERNE, SWITZERLAND. He Was Met at the Station by the American Ambassador at Paris, William Graves Sharp (left), and Members of the Paris Embassy Staff. (Photo © American Press Assn. From Medem.)

FRENCH MOTHER PRAYING AT THE ALTAR OF THE CHURCH OF ST. ALEXANDRE, PARIS, FOR THE SAFE RETURN OF HER SON, ABOUT TO LEAVE FOR THE FRONT AFTER A BRIEF FURLOUGH AT HOME.

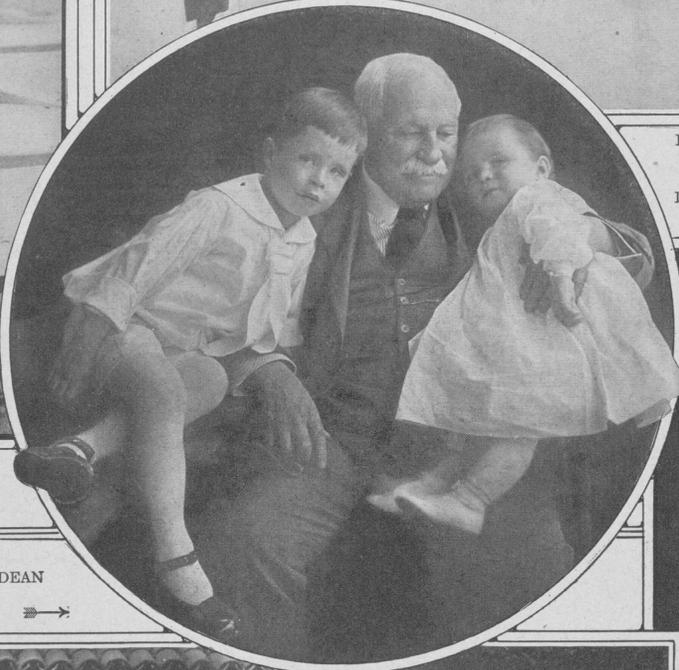

(Photo © International Film Service.)

MISS NATALIE JOHNSON, Of Milwaukee and New York, Heroine in the Moving Picture Melodrama Given by the Palm Beach Colony for Charity. (Photo © by International Film Service.)

FUNERAL CORTEGE AT AMSTERDAM, HOLLAND, OF THE OFFICERS AND MEN KILLED ON THE GERMAN TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYER U-69, DAMAGED IN BATTLE WITH BRITISH DESTROYERS IN THE NORTH SEA. In the Procession Were the Surviving Officers and Crew From the U-69 and City Officials of the City of Amsterdam. (Photo from Underwood & Underwood.)

WILLIAM DEAN HOWELLS AT EIGHTY WITH HIS GRANDSONS, JOHN M. HOWELLS, JR., AND WILLIAM DEAN HOWELLS 2D, WHOM HE CALLS "JACK" AND "BILLY." (Photo © by Louis Fabian Bachrach.)

THE "AGGREGATION" FROM WHICH WILL BE MADE UP THE CHICAGO "CUBS" FOR 1917, ON THEIR ARRIVAL AT RIVERSIDE, CAL., FOR THE SPRING TRAINING. (Photo © International Film Service.)

MISS LEONIE KNOEDLER, Daughter of Edmund L. Knoedler, Bridesmaid at the Wedding of Mrs. John Eyre, Formerly Miss Ethel La Marche. (Photo by Davis & Sanford.)