

THE GARDEN OF MRS. A. M. BOOTH OF GREAT NECK, L. I., TO WHICH WAS AWARDED THE GRAND SWEEPSTAKES PRIZE FOR THE BEST DECORATED AND MOST ARTISTICALLY ARRANGED EXHIBIT AT THE INTERNATIONAL FLOWER SHOW. The Prize Was a Flower Basket of Silver Offered by Mrs. D. Willis Martin, President of the Garden Club of America. (Times Photo Service.)

(Times Photo Service.)

MISS ADELAIDE SEDGWICK, a Red Cross Tea

Girl, Among the Easter Lilies at the Flower Show.

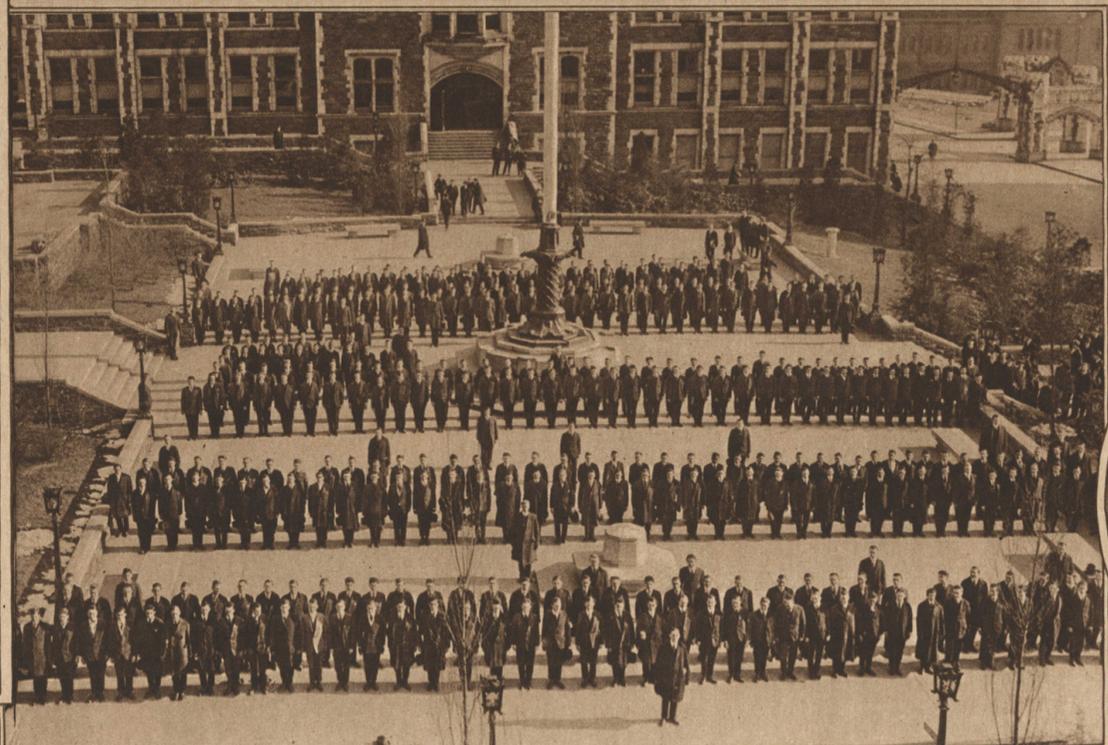

THE JEANNE D'ARC, A NEW WHITE AND MAUVE ORCHID, Donated by Clement Moore to the American Fund for French Wounded, to Which Was Awarded a Gold Medal. It Was Sold at Public Auction Under the Direction of the French Ambassador, M. Jusserand, for the Benefit of the Fund. (Times Photo Service.)

MISS MARION TIFFANY, As a French Tea Girl in the Red Cross Garden at the Flower Show. (Times Photo Service.)

MISS MARY MORELAND, Sister of Mrs. Henry E. Oelrichs of New York, Whose Engagement to Laurence Hudson Vilas of Chicago Has Been Announced. (Photo by Kazanjian.)

FIVE HUNDRED STUDENTS OF THE COLLEGE OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK ASSEMBLED IN THE GROUNDS OF THE COLLEGE FOR MILITARY DRILL. They Are All Between the Ages of 16 and 21, and Drill from 8 to 9 o'Clock A. M. Each Class Day. (Photo © American Press Assn.)

MISS ELISE SMITH, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Smith, Whose Engagement to Edward A. Hurd Has Been Announced. (Photo by Aime Dupont.)