

CAMOUFLAGED FRENCH HOSPITALS UNDER A HILL WHICH SEPARATES THEM FROM FRONTLINE TRENCHES.

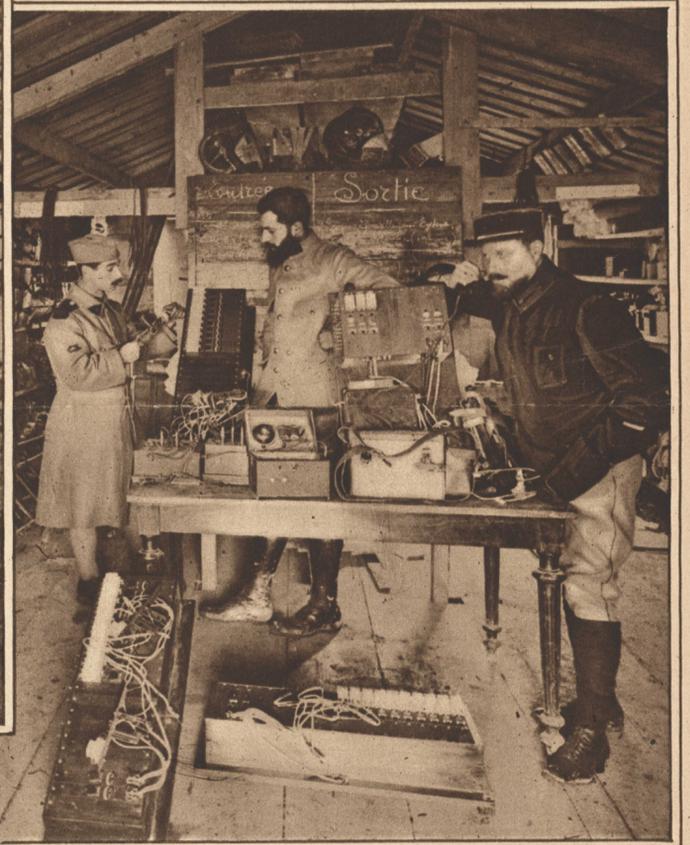

GENERAL ANTHOINE DECORATING FRENCH, ENGLISH AND SCOTCH SOLDIERS TO WHOM THE FRENCH WAR CROSS WAS AWARDED FOR RECENT HEROIC SERVICE ON THE BELGIAN FRONT.
(© Committee on Public Information.)

CORPORAL PACCINI, Who Received the Insignia of the Legion of Honor for Having Captured Single-handed a German "Pill-Box" Containing Twelve Soldiers, Everyone of His Own Squad of Five Men Having Been Killed by German Rapid Fire Guns Before the Block House Was Reached.
(French Pictorial Service.)

GERMANS GET THE RANGE OF A SHELL-TORN TREE ON WHICH THE FRENCH HAVE STRUNG THEIR TELEGRAPH AND TELEPHONE WIRES.

VIEW WITHIN A FRENCH MILITARY TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH HEADQUARTERS.

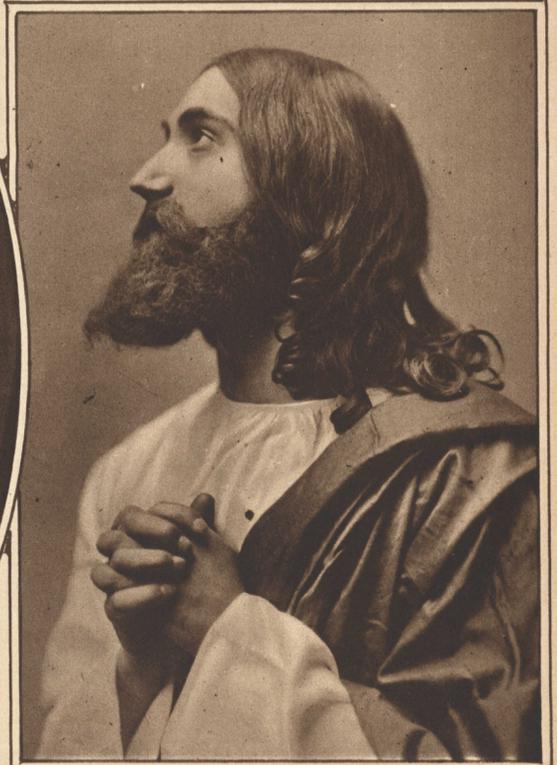

FRENCH WOMEN AND CHILDREN RECEIVING PRESENTS OF FOOD AND CLOTHING BROUGHT AMONG THEM BY AMERICAN RED CROSS MOTOR CARS.
(Photos by French Pictorial Service.)

FRENCH SOLDIERS AND CIVILIANS HOLDING MEMORIAL EXERCISES IN THE MILITARY CEMETERY AT CHALONS-SUR-MARNE IN HONOR OF THE FRENCH WHO FELL IN THE DEFENSE OF VERDUN AND THE MARNE.
(© Committee on Public Information.)

EDITH WYNNE MATTHISON, Soon to Appear at the Cort Theatre in Revivals of "Everyman" and of "The Merchant of Venice."
(© Dover Street Studios.)

JOSEPH HALSCH AS THE CHRIST in the Passion Play, "Veronica's Veil," to Be Presented in St. Joseph's Auditorium, West Hoboken, N. J., throughout Lent.
(© Father Conrad.)