

FINISH OF THE QUARTER-MILE RACE, INCLUDING A SPECTACULAR EXHIBITION OF COSSACK, TRICK, AND ROUGH RIDING, Open to Members of the Mounted Squad, at the Police Field Day Performances on Sheepshead Bay Speedway. Winner: George Feulner, Traffic Squad B.

(Times Photo Service.)

PERSHING'S VETERANS, HOME ON ACCOUNT OF WOUNDS OR ILLNESS AFTER MONTHS OF ARDUOUS SERVICE IN FRANCE, PARADING ON THE SPEEDWAY TRACK.

MOUNTED POLICE RIDING IN PYRAMID FORMATION.

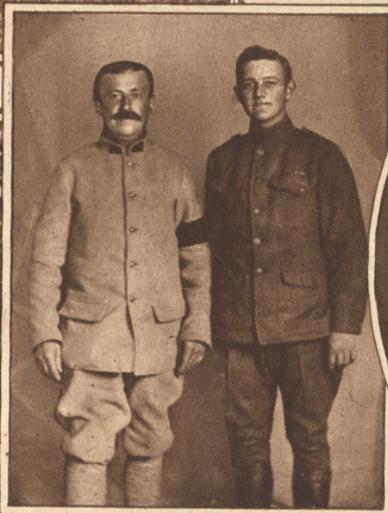

LIEUT. JOHN E. WILLIAMS, M. C. R., of the Mackay-Roosevelt Hospital Unit, Now in France, With His Bride, Formerly Mlle. Luzanne Merger, Daughter of Major Louis Merger of the French Medical Corps. Major Merger is Standing Just Behind the Bridegroom.

POLICE RESERVES IN SHAM BATTLE BEFORE THE SPEEDWAY GRANDSTAND.

HEAD OF THE COLUMN OF THE WOMEN'S POLICE RESERVES, FROM WHOM ARE DRAWN THE ACTIVE POLICEWOMEN NOW BEING ADDED TO THE FORCE, PASSING BEFORE THE GRANDSTAND.

FATHER AND SON,

Under the Tricolor and the Stars and Stripes, Meet in France After Four Years' Separation. They Are Joseph Cayot of New York, Called to the French Colors in 1914, and Celestin F. Cayot, Troop D, 6th U. S. Cavalry, A. E. F.

A FAMILY GROUP IN THE LIBRARY AT SAGAMORE HILL, Consisting of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, Holding His Youngest Grandchild, Son of Capt. Archibald B. Roosevelt, Mrs. Archibald Roosevelt, Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Mrs. Richard Derby and Children, Richard, Jr., and Ethel Derby.