

THREE THOUSAND NEW STUDENTS OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY STANDING UNCOVERED DURING THE FLAG RAISING CEREMONIES IN FRONT OF THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY, the Young Men Immediately Thereafter Swearing Allegiance to the Flag as Members of the Students' Army Training Corps. At the Instant of the Flag Raising a Seaplane, Flying Down the Hudson, Swung in Nearly Over the University Grounds. (Times Photo Service.)

PRESIDENT WILSON BEING BLINDFOLDED TO DRAW THE FIRST CAPSULE IN THE 18-45 DRAFT LOTTERY, INVOLVING 13,000,000 MEN, THE PRESIDENT DRAWING NO. 322. (© International Film Service.)

FORMER SENATOR ELIHU ROOT, Standing Beneath the Uplifted Arms of the Bronze Figure of Alma Mater on the Steps of the University Library, Addressing Columbia Students in the New Army Training Corps. Dean J. F. Woodbridge is Standing at Mr. Root's Right, and Col. John P. Finley, U. S. A., Commander of the Students' Corps, at His Left. (Times Photo Service.)

SIR H. BABINGTON SMITH, Acting High Commissioner from Great Britain to the United States, Speaking on Last Monday, British Empire Day, from the Altar of Liberty. (Central News Photo Service.)

AMERICAN MARINES OF THE FIFTH AND SIXTH REGIMENTS, WOUNDED IN THE BATTLES OF CHATEAU-THIERRY AND OF BELLEAU WOOD, REACHING THE HOME FRONT FOR A NEW CAMPAIGN, THAT OF THE FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN. (Times Photo Service.)

DR. WELLINGTON KOO, Chinese Minister to the United States, Speaking from the Altar of Liberty, Madison Square, on Last Tuesday, China's Day of the Fourth Liberty Loan Campaign. (Times Photo Service.)

CHINA, LIBERTY AND UNCLE SAM IMPERSONATED BY CHINESE RESIDENTS OF NEW YORK, IN THE PAGEANT WHICH PRECEDED THE EXERCISES AT LIBERTY ALTAR ON CHINA'S DAY. (Times Photo Service.)