

ITALIAN AND SERBIAN PRISONERS OF WAR, WHO HAD BEEN HELD IN HUNGARY, LEAVING THE RAILWAY STATION AT BUDAPEST FOR THEIR HOMES WITH SHOUTS OF JOY, EVERY AVAILABLE FOOT OF SPACE IN AND ON THE TRAIN BEING OCCUPIED.

(© Underwood & Underwood.)

MRS. WILSON AND HER SECRETARY, MISS BENHAM, SEATED ABOARD THE GEORGE WASHINGTON BESIDE ONE OF THE SHIP'S RAPID-FIRE GUNS. THE PRESIDENT, IN SEA TOGS AND WITH HIS BINOCULARS HANDY, IS STANDING AT THE EXTREME RIGHT.

PRESIDENT WILSON, ON THE GEORGE WASHINGTON, BECOMES A NEWS CAMERA MAN, TRYING OUT A GOVERNMENT GRAFLEX.

THE PRESIDENT, ON THE BOAT DECK OF THE GEORGE WASHINGTON, CHATTING WITH THE THREE PRESS CORRESPONDENTS WHO HAVE ACCOMPANIED HIM ON HIS TRIPS ABROAD.

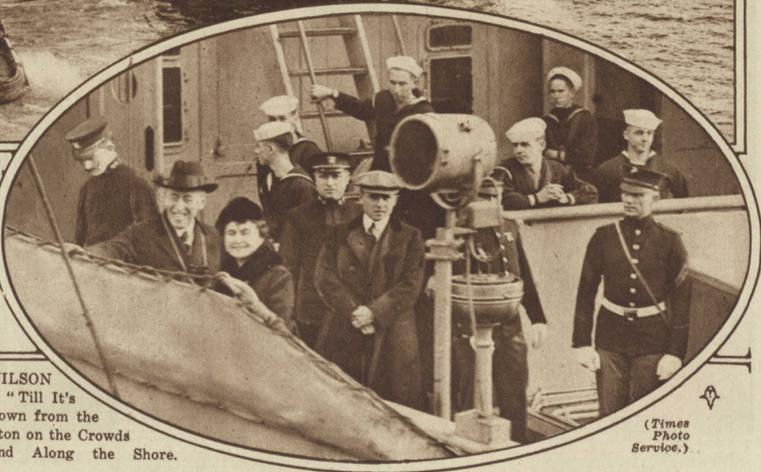

COUNT MICHAEL KAROLYI, FIRST PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF HUNGARY. FROM A RECENT PHOTOGRAPH JUST RECEIVED IN THIS COUNTRY.

COUNTESS KAROLYI, WIFE OF THE NEW HUNGARIAN PRESIDENT, AND DAUGHTER OF COUNT JULIUS ANDRASSY, LAST HUNGARIAN FOREIGN MINISTER UNDER THE OLD REGIME.

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON, ON WHICH PRESIDENT WILSON SAILED FOR EUROPE ON LAST WEDNESDAY, MID STREAM IN THE HUDSON, FIRING THE PRESIDENT'S SALUTE, WITH THE PRESIDENT'S FLAG FLYING FROM HER MAINMAST, WHILE NOISY TUGS PUSH HER PROW OCEANWARD.

(Times Photo Service.)

PRESIDENT AND MRS. WILSON OFF AGAIN TO EUROPE TO STAY "TILL IT'S OVER, OVER THERE," SMILING DOWN FROM THE BRIDGE OF THE GEORGE WASHINGTON ON THE CROWDS GATHERED ON THE PIERS AND ALONG THE SHORE.

(Times Photo Service.)