

Terpsichore Invades the Realm of Midas—Following a recent meeting of the Guaranty Club, composed of employees of the Guaranty Trust Company, members and their guests danced on the marble floors of the main banking rooms, at 140 Broadway. Photo by Pach.

Battleship Battlers Are Battered—This is how Fordham University beat the football team from the U. S. S. Texas on Columbus Day. The score was 27—0. Greley Photo Service.

A Riding Tournament Mishap—Mrs. Ingersoll Minton, of New York, was pulled from her mount and badly bruised at the pony gymkhana of the Whippany River Club, Morristown, N. J. Paul Thompson.

Not a trench fighter, but a miner. He is equipped with a gas mask, telephone, horn and lanterns. So long as the bird in the cage remains alive the air is fit to breathe. This figure was exhibited at a recent mining exposition in New York. Curtis Photo.

Price, $250,000—Henry C. Frick has just purchased this famous Rembrandt, "An Old Woman Reflecting Over the Lecture," for a quarter of a million dollars. Mr. Frick's gallery now contains four Rembrandts. International Film Service.

Duck Dinner for Women Campaigners—The Hughes Alliance special was halted at Bismarck, N. D., long enough to permit Mrs. Edmund A. Hughes, wife of a state Senator, to treat the travellers to duck. Underwood & Underwood.