VICTROLAS

Landay BROS

A man recently came all the way from Washington, D. C., to visit Landays.

He happens to be an ambassador from one of the largest European countries. Why he came to Landay is evidence that not only in New York is our Victrola service known, but is famous in parts distant from the greater City.

The ambassador selected the largest and best model Victrola, the No. 18 electric circassian walnut. He, being particular, knew that to get a choice he must come to the house carrying the most complete stock.

You should be as particular about the Victrola that goes into your home. At Landays you select one whose finish matches your furniture, and whose tone fits the acoustic properties of your home.

This is possible at Landays because we place before you not one particular model, but several. Many such details make up Landay service. Do you wonder why so many discerning music lovers come to Landay when they want a Victrola or Victor records?
