

The mine planter "General William M. Graham" takes the water. Miss Mary Graham Burrage, a granddaughter-as sponsor. This boat, it's keel laid immediately after the declaration of war, is the first to be launched of those called for in the new Federal programme.

Brown & Dawson

Newport holds its twenty-fourth Annual Horse Show at the Casino, the proceeds going to the Newport Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. Judge Moore was a big winner, taking many blues, and Miss Eleanora Sears, of Boston, made her debut, taking a first with her gelding Radiant.

International Film

Above—Fish were caught three years ago above where this wheat field lies; this year a $4,000,000 crop was harvested from this reclaimed land just outside the city of Sacramento, Cal. Enough wheat to feed 400,000 soldiers for one year, seven immense tractors gathering the crop at the rate of 700 acres a day.

International Film

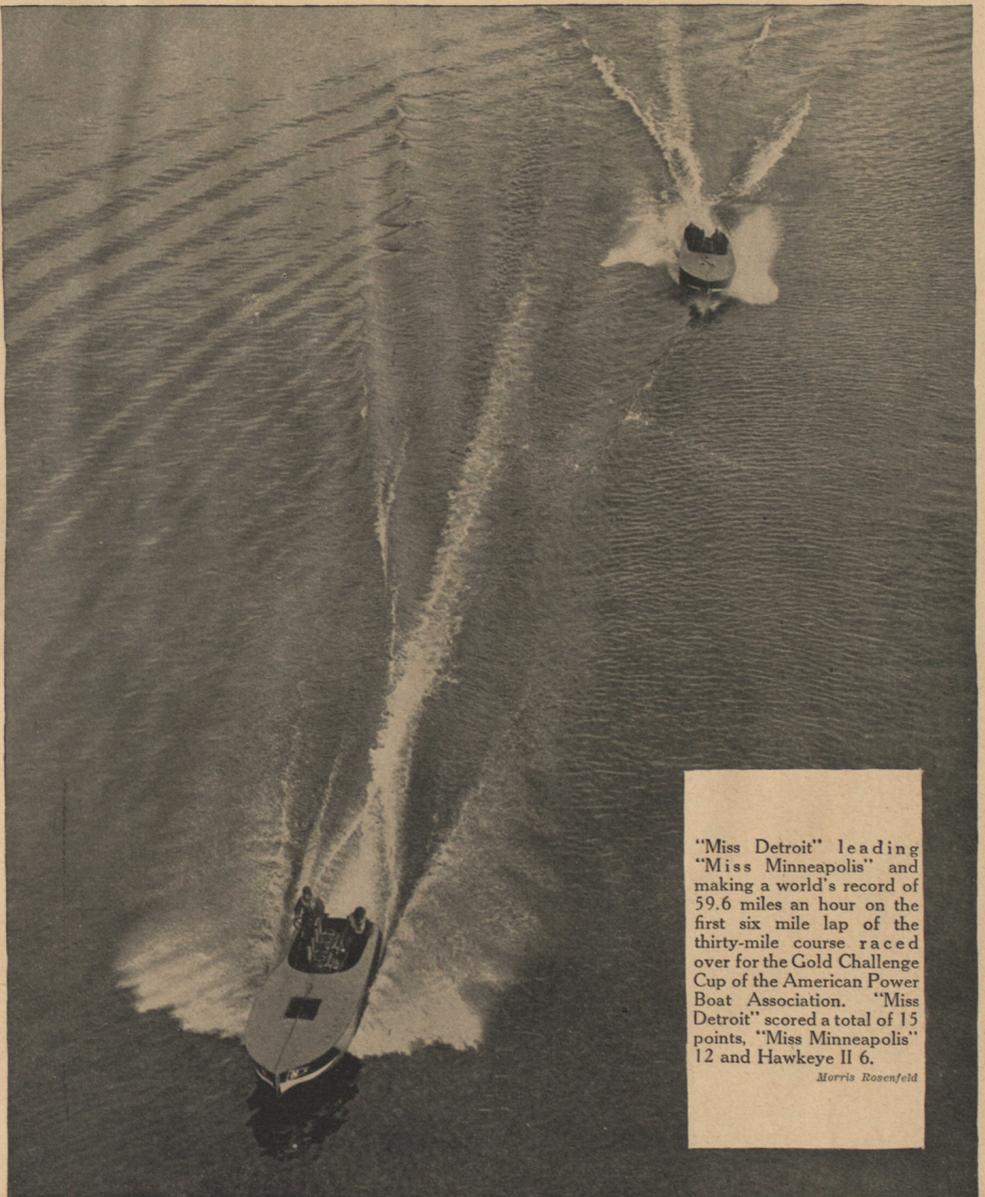

A bucket-load at the Send-Off Parade. Every possible point of vantage swarmed with the friends of National Guardsmen as they marched down Fifth Avenue. These spectators, with the help of a good natured derrick man, have a bird's-eye view of the line of march.

Underwood & Underwood.

An unusual photograph of a German submarine ashore on the sands near Calais, France. The crew were made prisoners by the French.

Underwood & Underwood

"Miss Detroit" leading "Miss Minneapolis" and making a world's record of 59.6 miles an hour on the first six mile lap of the thirty-mile course raced over for the Gold Challenge Cup of the American Power Boat Association. "Miss Detroit" scored a total of 15 points, "Miss Minneapolis" 12 and Hawkeye II 6.

Morris Rosenfeld