

The Hands of the Artist

The AMPICO Reproducing Piano

SENSITIVE, powerful, beautifully muscled—they are indeed marvelous instruments. So skilled have they become by long practice that they seem almost to possess a brain and a will of their own.

Is it possible to endow a piano with the subtle intelligence of those wonderfully trained hands?

American inventive genius answers with an audacious "yes!" and in evidence offers—the Ampico Reproducing Piano.

The Ampico has conclusively proven its marvelous perfection by numerous public comparisons with the playing of the artists themselves. Godowsky, Ornstein, Volav, Adler and a score of other great pianists have appeared in Comparison Concerts at which the Ampico has reproduced, tone for tone and phrase for phrase, every individual characteristic of the artist's style.

Hereafter every great interpreter of pianoforte music will play not merely to the audience of his day, but to the music lovers of all ages—he will not play in the concert hall alone, but in thousands of homes. Great musical literature is now as accessible as the books in your library. At any time and without leaving your home you can command the services of the greatest living pianists.

To purchase or even consider a "player" instrument before hearing the Ampico is to ignore the greatest advance ever made in the development of music.

Too Comfortable to Move

IT ALMOST rests you to look at this picture, doesn't it? Imagine how this Tarrytown Twin Couch of McHughwillow would look on your porch and the comfort it would give you and your children during the coming summer months! Notice how perfectly its lines conform to those of the body, and how luxuriously its cretonne upholstered cushions support it.

DON'T consider this ideal rest lounge for two people a luxury; on the contrary, you will find it a real wartime economy, for it will be an investment which will pay you rich returns in health. You'll not chat indoors when you know this couch is waiting for you on the porch.

THIS is only one of many unique pieces for the porch and country home on display at our shop. Will you let us show them to you?

HAVE YOU A SWEETHEART?

Son or Brother in training camps in the American Army or Navy? If so, mail him a package of ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE, the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes and sprinkled in the foot-bath. The American, British and French troops use Allen's Foot-Ease, because it takes the Friction from the Shoe and freshens the feet. It is the greatest comforter for tired, aching, tender, swollen feet and gives relief to corns and Soldiers use Foot-Ease bunion.

The Plattsburg Camp Manual advises men in training to shake Foot-Ease in their shoes each morning. Ask your dealer to-day for a 25c. box of Allen's Foot-Ease, and for a 2c. stamp he will mail it for you. What remembrance could be so acceptable?
