Somewhere in West 42d Street. The Anzacs, from Australia, visit New York.
Pach Brothers.

A mosaic of Roman days is uncovered in digging trenches on the Italian front.
Dr. V. Buffa.

A bullet-riddled railroad station on the Western front becomes a billet for men.
International

French chasseurs, who came to New York to aid in putting over the third Liberty Loan, visiting the Statue of Liberty.
International

Trestle bridge built by the Anzac engineers in Palestine. When in flight this stream often rises fourteen feet.
International