

Everybody is singing these BIG SONG HITS

AMERICA has been called a singing nation, and why should we not sing when we have such sing-compelling songs---as these three new hits from "Song Headquarters"?

During the past year, in the parks, in the theatres, in the homes, in the camps, and right on the battlefield, America was singing as she went about her business of making the world safe for democracy.

We cannot help but feel proud of our help in furnishing the songs to keep America singing. Let us review some of the "Feist" hits for 1918. First, there was "Over There," a song that has been nearly as popular as our national anthem, and then follow the long list of other "Feist" hits shown here.

Other Big "Feist" Song Hits

- "The Rose of No Man's Land"
- "You'll Find Old Dixie Land in France"
- "I Ain't Got Weary Yet" "K-K-K-Katy"
- "I'm Sorry I Made You Cry" "My Belgian Rose"
- "Everything Is Peaches Down in Georgia"
- "Just Like Washington Crossed the Delaware"
- "If He Can 'Fight' Like He Can Love"
- "If I'm Not At the Roll Call" "It's a Long Way to Berlin"
- "Good Morning, Mr. Zip-Zip-Zip" "Homeward Bound"
- "Hail, Hail, the Gang's All Here" "Over There"
- "At the Dark Town Struttr's Ball"
- "Good-bye Broadway, Hello France"
- "Where Do We Go From Here?"
- "Don't Bite the Hand That's Feeding You"

"Mother, Here's Your Boy"

Here's Uncle Sam's tribute to the Mothers of America. "Honor to whom honor is due" is its theme, and the wonderful words are set to a tune that's full of spirit and vigor. "Mother, Here's Your Boy"—the title tells the story—the conquering hero is delivered into the arms of his Mother. Our Soldier Boys brought us Peace—let this song bring us joy. Learn it—you'll learn to love it. By Sidney Mitchell, Archie Gottler and Theo. Morse.

Moth-er, you gave your pride and joy, Moth-er, you gave your boy. You sent him off with gun up-on his shoul-der, Glad that your lad could be a sol-dier, He fought just like you'd want him to, He brought you peace and joy. Now that his fight-ing days are through, He be- longs to you, So moth-er, here's your boy!

THE NAVY TOOK THEM OVER AND THE NAVY WILL BRING THEM BACK

"The Navy Will Bring Them Back"

"Tho the Army is the clover, 'twas the Navy brought them over" is the depth bomb of this gloom destroyer. And they'll bring them back, too, to the tune of this rollicking melody that has all the dash of a pesky submarine chaser. It's the Navy's "Over There"—and just like our Navy it's full of "pep" and spirit. Hear it—sing it—play it—it will blast its way to your heart. Howard Johnson, U. S. Navy Yeoman, wrote the words, Ira Schuster the dashing melody.

On the sea, we've oth-er he-roes, too, On the sea, our sail-or boys in blue; With their swift De-stroy-ers, "Sub-ma-rine An-noy-ers," They've been tried and true; God bless them! Now this war is o-ver, 'O-ver There," We'll have to take our hats right off to Jack; Tho' the Army is the clo-ver, 'Twas the Na-vy brought them o-ver, and the Na-vy will bring them back!

"In the Land of Beginning Again"

"I feel so happy," said the girl after a good cry,—maybe you know how that feels. Well, that's how this wonderful "forgive and forget" ballad gets hold of you. There's nothing sad about it—everything glad about it. It's another "I'm Sorry I Made You Cry," with beautiful words and a haunting melody that's sure to "get" you. It should be in every home—it's a peace maker and a joy bringer. By Grant Clarke and Geo. W. Meyer.

"IN THE LAND OF BEGINNING AGAIN"

CHORUS Copyright by LEO. FEIST, Inc.

There's a land of be-gin-ning a-gain, Where skies are al-ways blue, Tho' we've made mistakes that's true, Let's for-get the past and start life a-new, Tho' we've wandered by a riv-er of tears, Where sun-shine won't come through; Let's find that Par-a-dise where sor-row can't live, And learn the teachings of for-get and for-give, In the land of be-gin-ning a-gain, Where broken dreams come true.

THE hits we produced in 1918 have only inspired us to do greater things in 1919. In announcing the three new songs on this page we believe you will agree with us that we have continued to live up to our slogan—"You Can't Go Wrong With Any 'Feist'-Song."
