

While President Wilson led a parade of victorious District of Columbia soldiers along Pennsylvania Avenue from the Capitol to the White House one day last week the navy's silvered dirigible No. C-3 manoeuvred overhead. Photograph shows Peace Monument in the foreground and the Capitol dome beyond.

A close-up of one of the British navy's new giant submarines of the "K" class. This type is steam driven on the surface, photograph showing one of the funnels folded back for submersion and the other about to be.

John D. Spreckels's converted yacht Venetia, which has just returned to San Francisco with the proud record of having steamed over 44,000 miles in the war zone, during which time she sank three U-boats and fought a dozen minor engagements. The Venetia is credited with having crippled the U-39, the submarine which sank the Lusitania.

General Pershing photographed just after he was made Officer of the Legion of Honor and presented with the medal of the order by Marshal Petain at Marne, France.
