

LEADERS OF THE NEW YORK WOMAN'S VICTORY LOAN COMMITTEE

PHOTOGRAPHED EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE TRIBUNE BY MEMBERS OF THE WOMAN'S VICTORY LOAN CAMERA CLUB

Mrs. Henry Caraway, president of the Women's University Club, has charge of the College Victory Loan booth. Left to right—Miss Grace Ames, Mrs. Charles W. Halsey, Mrs. Helen Carey.

Below—Miss Mary Towle, Miss Bertha Rembeau, chairman, and Mrs. John T. Russell, jr., members of the Women's Law Committee who wrote the Victory Brief for women Victory Loan speakers.

Mrs. Jacob Riis, widow of the "Ideal American," and one of New York's most successful business women, and chairman of the Business Women's Committee for the Victory Loan campaign.

Photo by Marcia Silcox.

Miss Mina Bruere, secretary to Frank Vanderlip, was the executive secretary of the first Woman's Liberty Loan Committee.

Photo by Cornelia White.

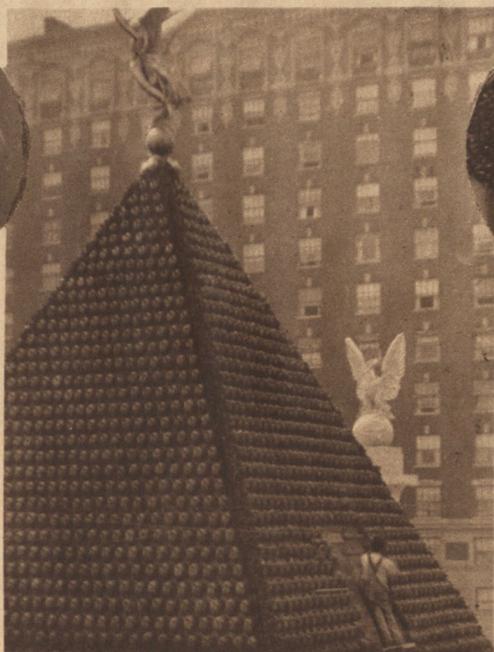

Mrs. George McAneny, of the Women's Club Committee, is in charge of the work of the non-federated clubs.

Photo by Doris Jaeger.

Miss Clara Porter, of the Guaranty Trust, has trained hundreds of women Liberty Loan bond sellers.

Photo by Cornelia White.

One of the most popular and forceful speakers for the Victory Loan is Miss Catherine Evarts.

Photo by Mary White.

President of the City Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. Harry Lilly, a vice-chairman of the Woman's Committee.

Photo by Doris Jaeger.

Miss Anne O'Hagen Shinn, of the Foreign Press Bureau Committee of Public Information.

Photo by Pearl Grace Lochr.

Left—Nurses from the Henry Street Settlement join forces with their friends of Engine Company 15 in selling bonds.

Photo by Helen Carpenter.

Right—Committee of the W. C. C. Service, in charge of the Liberty Theatre at the Library. L. to R.—Mrs. F. V. S. Crosby, Mme. de Cisneros, Mrs. L. Treadwell, Mrs. J. Grismer, Miss M. Beardsley, Mrs. A. F. Harcourt.

Photo by Ruth Anderson.

Mrs. James Harvey Robinson, arranging for the pageants of the Victory Loan Festivals.

Photo by Pearl Grace Lochr.

The cost of every war service to the Loan workers is outlined by Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank.

Photo by Marcia Stein.

The Executive Committee of the Woman's Victory Loan Camera Club originating this new publicity feature. Left to right—Doris U. Jaeger, Mary White, Antoinette B. Hervey, Adelaide W. Ehrich.

One of the stars of the Woman's Speakers' Bureau is Mrs. Jackson Fleming.

Photo by Alice Boughton.

Mrs. Florence Wardwell, of the Woman's Victory Loan Committee.

Photo by Mary White.

Members of the Stage Women's War Relief are active workers for the Loan, and on Friday were in charge of Victory Way. Left to right—Margaret Wheeler, Jessie Bonstelle, Violet Heming, Mrs. Joseph Grismer, Julia Arthur, Bijou Fernandez, Jean Patrichquinn, Mrs. Otis Skinner, Alma Clayburgh, Margaret Smith, Mrs. Walter Vincent, Blanche Bates.

Photo by Marcia Stein.