

The unconquerable flivver in an unusual accident near Denver, when an airplane in landing collides with the Ford and tumbles it over. The plane was wrecked, but Tin Lizzie when pulled out from under continued blithely on her way. Underwood.

The giant Tarrant airplane, the world's largest heavier than air machine, whose recent trial flight in England resulted in a disastrous smash, with the death of both pilot and assistant pilot. The scaffold on wheels is equipped with a flivver for starting the great propellers spinning. Central News.

Committee National America ker-elect ops of the Washington t, which to Con. F. S.

contestant the horse h Army y of Oc- em, Ger- lapidated double and is y a lieu- or. Thompson.

at Aleppo, Syria. They have all been one of the patients bears the mark of Underwood.

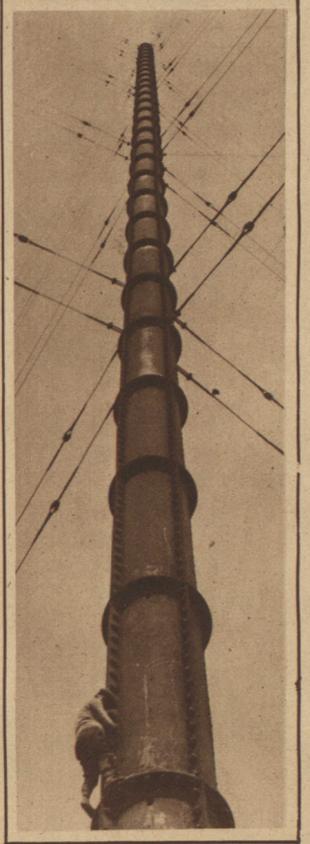

"Rabbit breeding is better than dabbling in stocks." Thomas Lawson, financial expert, has stocked his farm with 1,000 thoroughbred bunnies and expects his stock to go up some 600 per cent by fall. I. F. S.

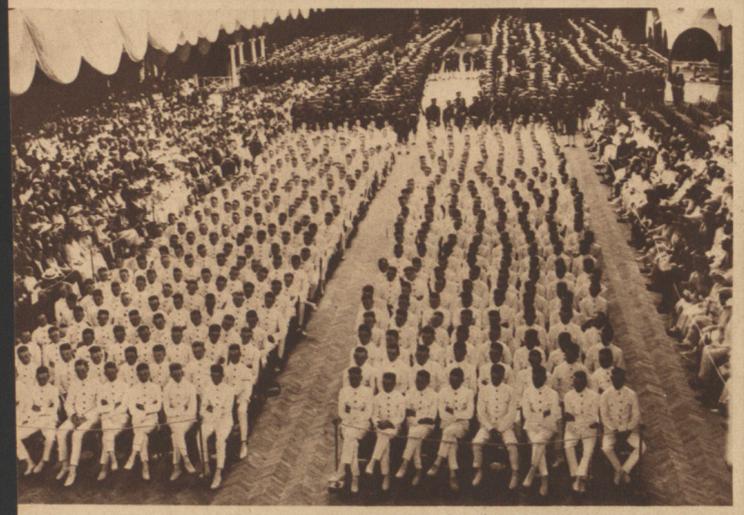

King George and Queen Mary on their recent visit to Birmingham with characteristic graciousness pause to chat with a wounded Tommy. Underwood.

(Right)—A recent storm destroyed the aerial connection at the top of the 450-foot mast of the wireless station at Chelmsford, Mass., and Fred Post, 55 years of age, courageously scaled the mast by its bolts to repair damages. (Above) — Mr. Post starts his upward climb. I. F. S.

(Left)—Master George Alexander Eugene Haig, son and heir of the house of Sir Douglas Haig, former commander in chief of the British forces in France. Western Newspaper Union.

recent commencement exercises at Annapolis, when the National Naval Academy sent Uncle Sam with 450 new ensigns to enter his navy—the largest class ever graduated from the Maryland institution. Underwood.

(Right)—The S. S. Palo Alto of 7,500 tons, the world's first tanker made of concrete bricks, is successfully launched sideways at the Government Island Shipyards, California. Underwood.