

Above, to the right—A new photograph of Mrs. J. W. Davis, wife of the American Ambassador to the Court of St. James's, a charming figure in London society. I. P. S.

Two British mermaids discover that the pontoon of a seaplane makes an ideal swimming raft—a picture that graphically illustrates the wide difference in overseas and undersea costumes. I. P. S.

The head that is some day to wear a crown should not rest uneasily in this luxurious stateroom especially designed for the Prince of Wales for his two months' tour of Canada. Keystone

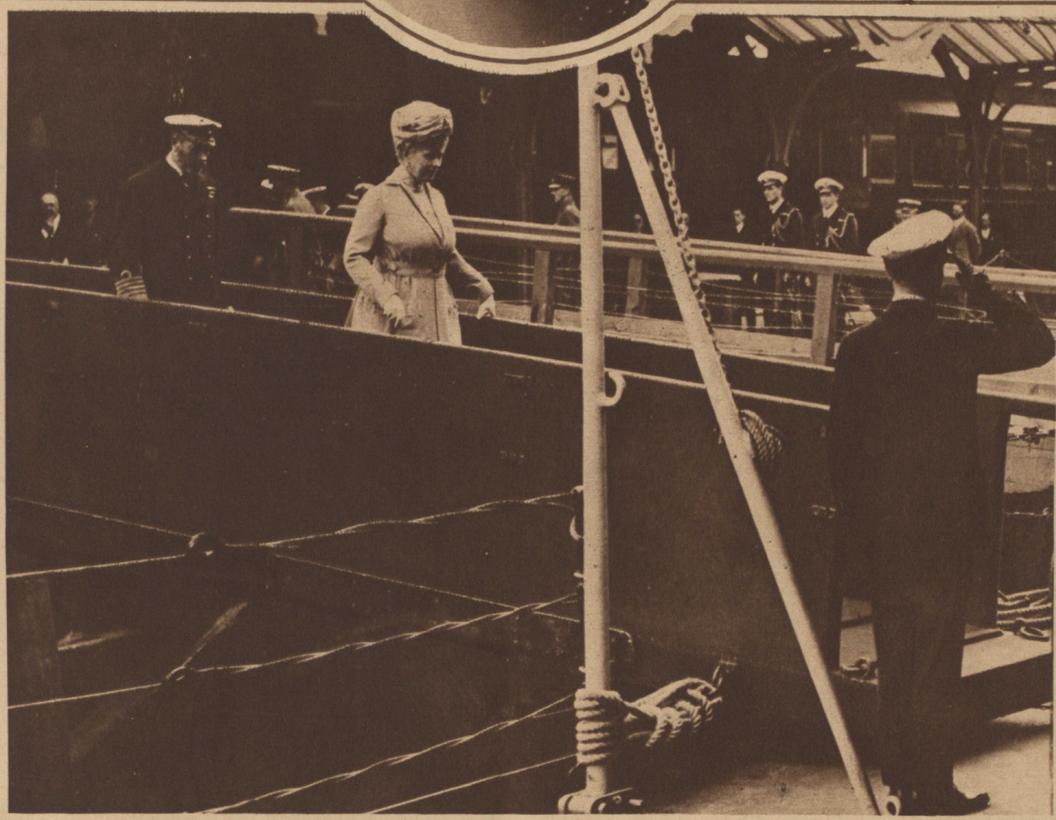

Left—Not Mary, but Miriam Cooper and her little lamb in the film dramatization of Longfellow's epic poem, "Evangeline."

Right—Theda Bara forsakes vamping and assumes the role of Kathleen in that new movie classic, "Kathleen Mavourneen" I. P. S.

Miss Francine Larrimore, who shares the leading honors with Charles Cherry in Cosmo Hamilton's new play, "Scandal," which will soon open in New York.

England's King and Queen leaving their royal train at Portsmouth and going aboard the H. M. S. Renown to wish the Prince of Wales bon voyage on his trip to Canada and the United States. Central News

Miss L. Bishop, of Philadelphia, who is considered the most beautiful Red Cross nurse in France. Miss Bishop wears a decoration from the Rumanian government. Keystone

$2,000 worth of beaded bags. This young lady's father, M. V. Mingot, designs and makes them in his little New York shop for the feminine members of the city's first families. They vary in price from $30 to $20,000. Only members of the Mingot family are permitted to work on them. I. P. S.

Miss Olga Ohrapovitsky, of New York, who is to wed a lieutenant of the former Czar's guard and return to Russia with him. Their honeymoon will be spent in Siberia. Underwood

Mrs. William L. Black, star member of the National Security League, New York City's "Flying Squadron" of anti-Bolshevist soap-box orators.

A summer dress goods sale as advertised—in Japan. The geisha girls' 5 and 10 cent store, with kimonos the most popular stock in trade. Oriental profiteers can't use the plea of a heavy overhead with these accessible open-air bargain counters. Press Illus.