

Three little kittens
Lost their mittens
And they began to cry.
What, lost your mittens
You naughty kittens,
Then you shall have no pie."

"Three Little Kittens" is typical of the quaint kiddie illustrations with which Grace G. Drayton has been delighting children the country over for the past several years. The original Campbell Soup Kids, the "Fido" and "Puppo" iron banks, "Dimples" and "Kitten Cutie" and paper cut-out dolls are all the creations of her clever pen and brush. The Tribune is indebted to Miss Drayton for her charming treatment of the above ever-popular nursery rhyme.
