WOMEN'S "BINNER" CORSETS

TO be fashionable, the silhouette should be slender and these "Binner" corsets accomplish this by moulding the figure into slender and youthful lines.

TO enumerate some of the many good points of this "Binner" corset (illustration at left), designed for average or full figures—there is sufficient fulness at the top providing comfort for the diaphragm—the closely set boning is soft but firm—and the hips and back are long and straight. Made of orchid Broche; in sizes 24 to 30.

THE low top, unboned sections over hips and elastic gores bespeak comfort for this low bust "Binner" corset (illustration at right), adaptable to the medium full figure, while the long straight boning at back produces the slender flat lines in accord with Fashion's decree. Made of pink mercerized Coutil; in sizes 23 to 30.
