

Hello New York!

WE'VE just slipped over from Boston — fresh from the largest maker of packaged chocolates in the world—Lowney.

We know you'll fairly "eat us up" when you see us—you people of fastidious taste in chocolates. White Crest is a box made especially with you in mind.

Lift the cover.

Luscious Orange Belmonts in their snug chocolate coating — chocolate almonds with that rich nut flavor—delicious Nugatines, big and "chewy"—there are 37 in all and each is a new delight.

The White Crest package represents the best Lowney makes. Shipments reach New York confectioners and druggists every Friday—fresh, tempting and full of flavor.

You'll be sure of a warm welcome if you take Lowney's with you!
