

Although the Blue out-rushed the Crimson 2 to 1, Harvard won over Yale a week ago yesterday by the score of 10 to 3 because the Eli eleven insisted on using the old-time bulldog tactics. The above remarkable action picture shows Desmond, Harvard's left end, bringing down Kempton, Yale's quarterback, in a pretty tackle—left foreground. The scrimmage picture to the left shows Braden, Yale's battering-ram fullback and best ground gainer, bucking the Crimson line practically unaided. Over 50,000 people in the great Stadium at Cambridge witnessed Braden's 55-yard drop kick for a field goal and Yale's only score—one of the longest drives ever recorded in a big game.
