Winter Resort and Travel Supplement

New York Tribune.

Graphic Section
December 14, 1919

Left—A Southern sunrise.

A day's catch at Long Key, on the Florida East Coast.

Right—Evening in the land of palms.

AMERICA · EUROPE · ASIA · AUSTRALASIA · AFRICA · COOKS' TOURS · AROUND · ABOUT · THE WORLD

COOK'S Travel Service Covers the World

First in 1841—First in 1919

Tropical Cruises

The two well-known steamers Pastores and Calamares of the Great White Fleet have been especially chartered by us for a series of 24 day cruises to sail February 7, 28 and March 27, to Cuba, Jamaica, Panama Canal Zone, Costa Rica and Bahamas. The dates have been selected as most seasonable to afford thorough enjoyment of both the climatic and scenic beauties of the Tropics.

Tours to Bermuda, California, Japan, China, Philippines, South America, etc.

Europe and the Battlefields. Reservation can now be made for travel in 1920

We invite inquiries.

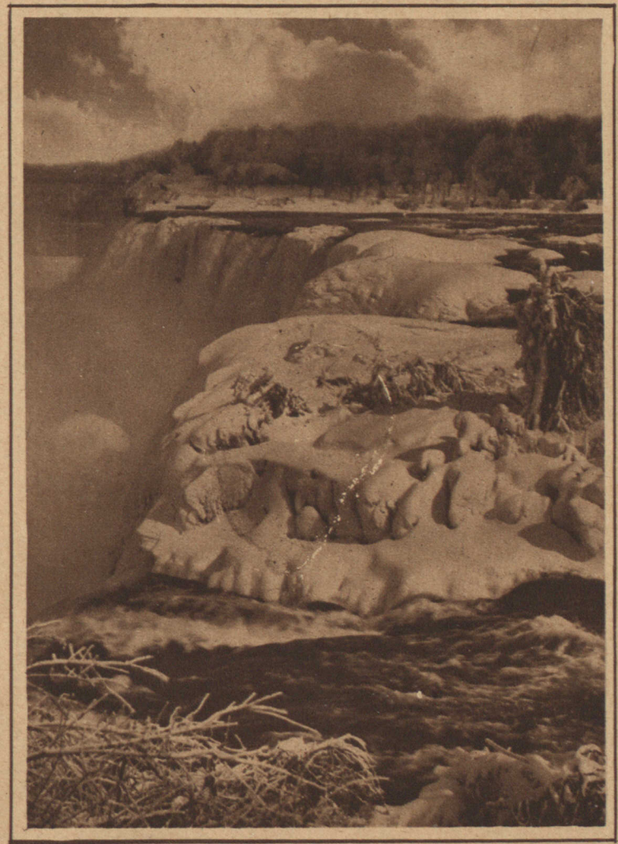
Thos. Cook & Son,
245 B'way, 561 5th Ave., New York

U.S.S. RHODE ISLAND
PASSING THROUGH
PANAMA CANAL
AUG. 1ST, 1919

THOS · COOK · & · SON

NEW YORK · BOSTON · PHILADELPHIA · CHICAGO · SAN FRANCISCO · LOS ANGELES · MONTREAL · TORONTO

"Come on in, the water's fine." No fear of the big blue ocean have these lucky youngsters who spend their winters at Palm Beach, Florida's fashionable playground for both young and old.



Winter can but add to the almost unbelievable beauty of our own Niagara. Here is American Falls, seen from Goat Island after a snowfall.