The Listening Post

FAITH

I bought a new car last week.

But I've had it for a week and I don't like it.

Along the way, I heard a loud noise.

And then I knew it was time to get rid of it.

I sold the car for $1,000.

I was sad to see it go, but I knew it was the right thing to do.

Bless him.

His name was John ash and he worked for the newspaper.

What will be in the news tomorrow is always a mystery.

Get your copy of the newspaper today.

— John ash, Faith

SAYS THE BATTERY

Is that the new battery you just bought?

It's not in the state we know today.

That's because it needs to charge.

— John ash, SAYS THE BATTERY

HAIL, CANADA!

This is Dominion Day, Canada's own Independence Day.

We've been waiting for this day for a long time.

Let's celebrate it together.

— Anonymous

FRANCE AS SHE IS SPOKE

A French beauty

She's as lovely as she looks.

— Anonymous

FRAGMENTS FROM THE FRONT

To write an essay on human life in the midst of war is to write about light and darkness, joy and pain, love and hate, hope and despair.

— Anonymous

A SONG FOR THE A.E.F.

In the midst of our strength we are battling, with the might of righteous might.

Our boys are standing firm, our men are fighting, our women are praying.

We will not give up until we have won.

— Anonymous

When you go to nice

The picture of your face, the sound of your voice, the way you walked.

I remember every detail.

— Anonymous

AM ENCLOSING PHOTO

The picture of your face, the sound of your voice, the way you walked.

I remember every detail.

— Anonymous

The Listening Post

FAITH

I bought a new car last week.

But I've had it for a week and I don't like it.

Along the way, I heard a loud noise.

And then I knew it was time to get rid of it.

I sold the car for $1,000.

I was sad to see it go, but I knew it was the right thing to do.

Bless him.

His name was John ash and he worked for the newspaper.

What will be in the news tomorrow is always a mystery.

Get your copy of the newspaper today.

— John ash, Faith

SAYS THE BATTERY

Is that the new battery you just bought?

It's not in the state we know today.

That's because it needs to charge.

— John ash, SAYS THE BATTERY

HAIL, CANADA!

This is Dominion Day, Canada's own Independence Day.

We've been waiting for this day for a long time.

Let's celebrate it together.

— Anonymous

FRANCE AS SHE IS SPOKE

A French beauty

She's as lovely as she looks.

— Anonymous

FRAGMENTS FROM THE FRONT

To write an essay on human life in the midst of war is to write about light and darkness, joy and pain, love and hate, hope and despair.

— Anonymous

A SONG FOR THE A.E.F.

In the midst of our strength we are battling, with the might of righteous might.

Our boys are standing firm, our men are fighting, our women are praying.

We will not give up until we have won.

— Anonymous

When you go to nice

The picture of your face, the sound of your voice, the way you walked.

I remember every detail.

— Anonymous

AM ENCLOSING PHOTO

The picture of your face, the sound of your voice, the way you walked.

I remember every detail.

— Anonymous