

Allied Soldiers Among Ruins of French Towns

BRITISH PATROL WARILY SEEKING SHELTER AMID RUINS OF VILLAGE THAT THEY HAVE JUST CAPTURED AFTER HARD FIGHTING, AND WHERE FALLING BEAMS FROM THE WRECKED BUILDINGS HAVE TO BE GUARDED AGAINST.

(© British Official, from Underwood & Underwood.)

GEORGES CLEMENCEAU, FRENCH PREMIER, DEFYING MINES PLANTED IN THE STREETS OF NOYON BY THE RETREATING GERMANS. ALTHOUGH 78 YEARS OLD, THE "TIGER OF FRANCE" IS STILL STRONG AND VIGOROUS.

(© Western Newspaper Union.)