FROM COLONEL THOMAS MOORE.

Apl. 30th. 1768

DEAR SIR

Since I came from your House I have seen Colo. Bradston who has acquainted me that what passed between you and him self proceeded from his being unacquainted with my sircumstances in short we have made up all matters and as it may be opening the breach again to give fresh security to you I am desireous the Bond may stand as it is taking out the Interest for which I now send you fresh Bond which you may depend on my dischargeing when I receive my Money which will be due the 2d. day of November next for the Security of this last Bond I send you some notes of hands of Gentr. of distinguished fortune and merit — I shall ever acknowledge the kind treatment I have reced. from you in your indulgence and am

Dear Sir Your very obliged hble Sert. THOSMOORE
