

Pussy-Cat-

This is the first of a delightful series of illustrated Mother Goose songs specially designed for The New York Tribune by the talented young artist, Albert Vargas. Recently returned from his studies in Paris, his work shows the influence of the best French school, delicate in handling, painstaking in detail, all the whimsical charm of the old rhyme is in this picture.