Kings, Princes, Statesmen and Generals Who Have Swayed the Balkans

DR. MILENKO VESNITCH, Chief of the Serbian Mission to the United States and delegate to the Peace Conference.

GEN. AVERESCU, Commander in Chief of the Rumanian Army, and one of the ablest of Balkan strategists.

KING FERDINAND, of Rumania, whom the collapse of Russia forced to withdraw from the war.

CROWN PRINCE CAROL, of Rumania, who incurred his father's displeasure by marrying outside of the royal caste.

TAKE JONESCU, Rumanian statesman, who throughout the war has been a staunch supporter of the Allies.

Nicholas Pashitch, Premier of Serbia, and prominent in the Yugoslav movement.

Prince Alexander of Serbia, son of King Peter, recently restored to power.

King Peter of Serbia, who, after a long exile, is now restored to his throne and his people.