

Letter from Alexander Melville Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, March 15, 1876, with transcript

Home, March 15th, 76. (No envelope) My dear Al.,

I shall bring with me some Readings in case any opportunity should offer; and also my V. S. Lectures "How to Speak All Languages". It might be well to deliver this in Boston. I shall bring some three hundred copies of the Alphabetic Sheet, to give away to the hearers of the Lecture. I wrote that I should be with you on the 25th, or 26th. Congratulations from all on telegraphic speaking and singing! In haste, with love from all,

Your affectionate father, A. M. B.
