

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Alexander Melville Bell, December 5, 1879

Letter written by Alexander Graham Bell to his Father. 904 — 14th Street, Washington, D. C., December 5, 1879. My dear Father:

Your note of the 3rd inst., received. I am glad to hear that you have signed the preliminaries of such a satisfactory agreement. I am gradually getting settled down

Please take care of inclosed letter until sent for by W. E. Sloane.

Yours truly, AGB. Hope Aunt and Aileen have arrived safely. Love from all to all. Alec.