

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, April 5, 1877, with transcript

Letter from Miss Mabel Hubbard to Mr. Alexander Graham Bell. April 5, 1877. My dear Alec:

I have time only to send my love and to wish you every success this evening. I have perfect faith in your success but if most unaccountably you should fail I shall know it is not your fault nor that of your instruments. I wish I could be with you my dear, but I know it is best not and at any rate I shall be with you constantly in spirit. I am afraid that you will be very tired and wish more than anything else that I were going to have you with me after the lecture.

Goodbye with a heartfelt of love, from Your own, Mabel.
