

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, March 10, 1879, with transcript

Letter from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. Darling Alec:

Did you suspect my handwriting on the envelope? I tried to disguise it, that you may not, be disappointed for I am in a tearing hurry and have nothing to say except that I love you and miss you dreadfully. Little Mary Sanders is down stairs and I must go and entertain her. She calls me Miss Mabel Hubbard.

Please attend to that letter from the Montreal Ins. it may be such a nice place for Miss Farrent remember how unhappy she is please write, Alec to Mr. Rossburgh. I feel sure a few kind words will save a law suit by and bye.

In greatest haste,

Your own loving, Mabel. Monday, March 10th., 1879. Miss Home is better.
