

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Gertrude McCurdy Hubbard, August 25, 1875, with transcript

(Copy) 23 (August 25th, 1875.) Boston. Wednesday. Dear Mrs. Hubbard:

Many thanks for your kind invitation for this evening.

As you were not aware at the time — of the letter that I had written you — I think it best to absent myself until I know your wishes in the matter.

With kind regards,

Yours very respectfully, A. Graham Bell. Mrs. Gardiner G. Hubbard, Brattle St., Cambridge.
