

Letter from Samuel P. Langley to Alexander Graham Bell, March 23, 1898

SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION. Washington. U.S.A. March 23, 1898. Dear Mr. Bell:

It has been suggested that possibly your lecture on the X-rays, and that on the reminiscences of the telephone given recently before the Men's Society of the Church of the Covenant, be printed in the Appendix to the Secretary's Report.

May I ask whether it will be possible for you to let me have copies of these for consideration in this connection?

Very truly yours, S P Langley Secretary. Professor A.Graham Bell, 1331 Connecticut Avenue, Washington, D. C.
