

Letter from Jason S. Joy to Gilbert Grosvenor, October 7, 1938

Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation STUDIOS BEVERLY HILLS, CALIFORNIA
October 7, 1938 Dr. Gilbert Grosvenor National Geographic Society Washington, D. C.
Dear Dr. Grosvenor:

Again I wish to thank you for your very great courtesy in connection with my visit to you on Tuesday. I find that the treatment of the story is progressing rapidly and, I think, very satisfactorily. It ought to be completed in another three or four weeks, at which time the Studio desires to take advantage of your generous offer to permit Lamar Trotti, the writer, to discuss the whole matter with you, and to be advised both by you and by your records concerning the further development of the story.

I will endeavor to communicate with you a week or so before the completion of the treatment so that Mr. Trotti's visit to you may fit in to your schedule with the least amount of inconvenience to you.

Sincerely yours, Jason S. Joy Jason S. Joy J:d
