

Letter from Gilbert Grosvenor to Jason S. Joy, October 13, 1938

P October 13, 1938 Colonel Jason S. Joy, Twentieth Century-Fox Film Corporation, Beverly Hills, California Dear Colonel Joy:

I am delighted to receive your letter advising that the Alexander Graham Bell story is progressing satisfactorily to you and that it will be completed in about four weeks. I can only repeat that Dr. Bell's family are ready to cooperate with you in any manner that you may request.

I hope that when you come to Washington next you can reserve an evening to dine with us, as my wife is most anxious to have the pleasure of meeting you.

With kindest regards and deepest appreciation of your kindness, I am

Yours very truly, Gilbert Grosvenor.
