

Letter from Archibald Hamilton to Alexander Graham Bell, January 21, 1878

L COPY 1878, A. Hamilton, London, 21 January. Acknowledging receipt of letter conveying H. M. thanks for exhibition at Osborne. 84 Cobourg Road, Old Kent Rd., S. E., Jany. 21st, 1878. A. G. Bell Esq. Dear Sir:

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your favour of the 18th inst. conveying the thanks of Her Majesty to yourself and those who assisted you in the telephonic experiments on the 14th inst. I feel much honoured by the compliment you have paid me in associating my name with those of yourself and friends on that occasion, and I shall feel most happy, should you require any help I can render on any future occasion, to place my humble services at your disposal.

I remain, Sir

Yours truly, Archibald Hamilton.
