

[Interne's Story]

[?]

FOLKLORE

****

NEW YORK Forms to be Filled out for Each Interview

FORM A Circumstances of Interview

STATE New York

NAME OF WORKER Clarence Weinstock

ADDRESS 43 Morton St.

DATE June 5

SUBJECT Interne's story

1. Date and time of interview June 1
2. Place of interview Interne's room.
3. Name and address of informant
4. Name and address of person, if any, who put you in touch with informant.
5. Name and address of person, if any, accompanying you Saul Levitt
6. Description of room, house, surroundings, etc.

Library of Congress

PAPERS

Hello, John, going out to see the girls? Working on the paper, heh? O.K. So long. Jeesh, these guys. The trouble with this dump is, they've all got St. Vitusitis. They all think they're big shots already, want to write papers. Always coming around: "Ben, let's write a paper on locomotor ataxia, let's do a treatise on coronary thrombosis." I tell them, "Go to hell. I haven't got time to write papers." Take this dope. He's got a wife in the city. You think he ever goes to see her when he's off, to engage in a little quiff quaff now and then? No, he's got a thousand papers in his pocket that he's working on, a piece of very original research to impress the famous stomach specialist, Stinker Burns. Spirit of scientific collaboration. That's exactly what they haven't got here. And yet this is one of the best cutthroat establishments in the country.