More Treasures from Egypt

Prof. Newland-Smith's Visit

Professor Ernest Newland-Smith, the well-known English musician, is to give a Lecture with Musical illus- & by a distant Choir of voice cele- on a grand piano at the P Palace Hotel, Heliopolis, on Tu March 18th, at 5.30 p.m.

His subject is one of great national interest, for it concerns his recent researches into the Ancient Music of the Coptic Church. These researches have already aroused wide publicity in many of the leading newspapers of the world. His recent lecture at the University Church, Oxford, was attended by Prof. Einstein, Prof. Freffitter, Prof. Zimmern, Prof. Lindemann, Mr. N. A. L. Fisher, Dr. Blackburn, Mr. Crumm, & other famous experts, & the lecture-hall was so crowded that numbers were unable to obtain seats. This lecture at Heliopolis is the only lecture that Prof. Newlandsmith will be giving in Egypt at present, & an introductory speech will be given by Mr. Raghib Moftah, at whose initiative the original researches were made.

N.B. Type-written copies of the above should be sent to all the papers: English, German, French, Greek & Arabic.

More Treasures from Egypt

Professor Ernest Newlandsmith is to give a lecture with musical illustrations at the Palace Hotel, Heliopolis,